

care, and when they appeared at the breakfast table, the rest of the family hardly knew them, they looked so tidy and sweet. And poor Tiny, who gazed with astonishment at her two little sisters, made her appearance at Agnes' door soon after breakfast, to ask if she wouldn't make her look nice too.

Agnes found so little to sympathize with, but took so little pleasure in the society of the little of the Fairland family, that she longed for her school to begin, that she might have useful occupation for her thoughts and time. On the appointed morning, therefore, she was well pleased to meet her little pupils in the pleasant little room in the west wing, and begin in earnest her labors as a teacher. Such a pile of solid, well-thumbed and dog-eared pile of books, Agnes had never seen together, and on opening them she found that the young Fairlands had been exercising their taste for the fine arts by dabbling all the pictures from a six-penny paint box.

"Now, my dear children, said she, the first thing we shall do every morning, will be to read in the Bible; but I do not see any Bible or Testament among your books; I suppose you each own one do you not?"

The Daily Ontario.

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 2ND, 1872.

The Elections.

The elections went off yesterday very quietly. The majority was a foregone conclusion when the names of the candidates are before the people. Mr. Henderson could not secure the personal influence necessary to warrant his candidature on the start, and hence fought a lone battle, and mourned his defeat in the silence of the sick chamber, out of which he sallied at the call of a laudable ambition. Justly or unjustly, Mr. Henderson's name has been seriously sullied, and the electors could not consent under the circumstances to allow him to hold the chair of Chief Magistrate. That he should desire the endorsement of the public of his career was very natural; his return would have been a complete refutation of the calumnious reports. The prize was therefore worth fighting for, even against the great odds that were offered against him. But the electors were obdurate, and Mr. Henderson's defeat was recorded by a majority of 333 votes—his own Ward going against him 53 votes. To say that many voted against Mr. Henderson with reluctance, is but to record the truth; he has been a consistent politician, his great ability has been acknowledged by all classes, and his talent as a lawyer has enabled him to amass a large amount of property, most of which he is entering spirit has caused to be put in brick and mortar to the advantage of the town.

Mr. Flint, the successful candidate, has cause for hearty congratulation. No young man has ever been elected to the Chief Magistracy of Belleville by a larger majority. In every Ward his friends recorded largely in advance of his opponent. In Coleman Ward his majority was over a hundred and forty.

At the close of the poll, the electors in sleighs escorted the Mayor elect through the principal streets of the town, and thence to his residence—Albert Street. Here, with a few friends, Mr. Flint ascended the balcony and addressed the electors: He said he was proud of the position he occupied—at the result as the majority. He was a "Boy of Quinte boy," born, reared and educated in Belleville, and the testimonial that he this day received from his fellow townsmen was gratifying. He would try to do his duty, and if he failed in every respect, it would be an error of the head, not of the heart.

Mr. Howell then followed, and said the triumph was one of morality. He believed Mr. Flint as Mayor, would do credit to himself and to the town. He then called for three cheers for the Mayor elect, for the Queen, and three for Mr. Flint, all of which were responded to with hearty good will by the hundreds of voices that echoed from the area below.

The crowd then dispersed.

COUNCILLORS.

The contest for Councillors was contested with equal ardor with that of the Mayor. In Coleman ward, Messrs. Fahey and Burdett headed the poll in the morning, and continued in that position until night. The test was between Messrs. Vandusen, Bull and Falkner. Between these three men it was difficult to say all day which would be returned.

but as night drew near, the result was unmistakable. Mr. Vandusen led by some half dozen votes, and the poll finally closed, recording a majority for him of nine.

In Ketchikan Ward the efforts made by the ticket, resulted in the return of two of their members. Mr. Harrison was defeated by a majority of twenty-three, and Mr. W. W. Jones, whom all his friends were bound to say at no time, elected to be a candidate, and therefore greatly neglected his canvass, retired at an early hour, and left the poll. Mr. Sutherland led the poll all day.

BALDWIN WARD proved a high appreciation of the services of Messrs. Holden and Patterson. Mr. Holden headed the poll from the start and kept it, followed closely by Mr. Patterson, who, during the forepart of the day, was understood to be carrying Mr. Reed.

The following is a correct state of the poll at its close in the various wards:

BALDWIN WARD.
Flint, 176.
Henderson, 107.
Reed, 107.
Patterson, 218.
Holden, 241.
Northcott, 207.

Total votes, 859.
Who did not vote for Mayor, 26.

SAMSON WARD.
Flint, 137.
Henderson, 84.
Foster, 123.
Benjamin, 131.
Moore, 174.
Clarke, 126.

Total votes, 551.
Who did not vote for Mayor, 21.

COLEMAN WARD.

Flint, 230.
Henderson, 88.
Vandusen, 169.
Fahey, 230.
Bull, 146.
Burdett, 217.
Falkner, 217.

Total votes, 1000.
Who did not vote for Mayor, 21.

Local and General.

1872.—Don't forget that this is 1872, especially when you date your letters, and correspondence.

DON'T SUCCEED.—A friend informs us that his wife went to market this morning on a sabbath, after some eggs. She was brought back by a carter, but the eggs were to be bought over again.

A STAR.—A misanthropic of the first magnitude is revolving about an orb which may bring her to Belleville. We have reference to Miss D. L. Linn, the great Irish Vocalist and Prima Donna, who will be in London to morrow evening, and then travel eastwards. She is very highly commended.

ALARM OF FIRE.—About twelve o'clock an alarm of fire was sounded from Taylor's Hill, and the Stanger and Hand Engine were soon on the move towards the place—whence proceeded the smoke. Before they reached their destination, however, they ascertained that the conflagration proceeded from a small wooden tenement in the enclosure of John Bell, Esq., used by the boys for a play house.

STATION COMPANY OF CANADA.—We understand that a meeting of the directors of the station Company of Canada, a contract was entered into with Mr. John Sheel, to build a Union Station at Toronto, to accommodate all the railway trains coming to that city. The station, which is to be erected of stone and brick, with an iron roof, has been designed by Mr. Hannaford of the G. T. R., and will cost, we believe, something like $200,000.

THIS MORNING was one of the fairest of winter time. You did not see the sun, of course, but our reporter did. It rose in a broad, shallow cloud of scarlet cirrus, and it laid a solid bar of gold upon the lucid ice that turned russet and pink under the wooing. The earth never looked more serene. It lay spread out like a silver shield, bathed in the glory of the morning. Get up to-morrow at seven and look at it, you sleepy-heads!

WATCH NIGHT SERVICES.—On Sunday night services were held in the Bridge St. Church at the usual hour, and then adjourned until ten o'clock, when watch services began. The members of the Workingmen's Temperance Society also held a meeting for similar purposes. From both places we hear that the last moments of the good Old Year were tranquil and happy, and the birth of the New one was full of promise.

RETURN THANKS.—We have been solicited to return thanks to the electors of Belleville, on behalf of the rejected candidates, yesterday for Municipal honors, for their considerate kindness in refusing to send them to the Council where they would get bad names and lose their self-respect. In an unguarded moment they permitted their names to be used at the nomination, and after that discreditable withdrawal from the contest, but their friends rightly appreciated the circumstances and saved them from enduring the chapter and vexation which must be felt by the unsuccessful candidates this morning. For all this they return thanks.

AGONY RECORD.—Elsewhere we mention the absence of drunkenness yesterday. The conduct of the Workingmen's Temperance Society on Sunday night may justly be considered as adding materially to this record of reformation. All honor to the efforts of this highest band of temperance men! We are informed that in addition to the usual interesting performances which invariably characterize their gatherings, they succeeded on Sunday night in placing thirty-eight members on their roll. Thirty-eight more men have by this moved them from their intention of turning against alcohol, and giving their assistance to the cause of temperance.

Yesterday.

Yesterday was not exceptionally lively, considering all things. Being New Years, and also election day, it was supposed there would be an unusual demonstration of spirits, but such was not the case. In the first place there was an evident want of feeling manifested with respect to the celebration in many respects with the enthusiasm of Christmas. Very little drunkenness was observable on the public streets, and we have not heard of any such scenes as disgraced our town last week. We readily make this confession, and half the population of Belleville, we are sure, will agree with us, that we were not made so many additions to the drunkard's career, and therefore, it may be, the ladies are to be credited with much of the good order that prevailed. Sleight riding was generally indulged in, but the candidates for civic honors monopolized nearly all available time, and thereby deprived many of what they most desired. A few runaways are reported, but not so many as might be expected, considering the number of persons on the streets. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer came near meeting with serious injuries by being thrown out of a cutter, but luckily escaped with only a few bruises. The election was quiet because all one-sided. Mr. Flint took the lead at the opening of the poll, and steadily increased it. The greatest excitement reigned in Coleman Ward, where a sharp contest took place between Messrs. Vandusen, Bull and Falkner.—Mr. Vandusen finally winning by nine votes. Messrs. Fahey and Burdett had all their own way. The other Wards are given elsewhere.

West Riding of Northumberland.

From our own Correspondent.

Nominations for this Riding took place to-day at Cobourg in presence of a large number of people assembled from all parts of this and the adjoining counties.

Precisely at 12 o'clock Sheriff Waddell made his appearance at the Town Hall, for the usual preliminary of the Mayor of Alawick nominated Mr. Gifford after whom Mr. Fisher was proposed.

The Hon. Messrs. Blake and Cameron being present, there was considerable maneuvering on the part of Mr. Gifford's friends, in order to have Mr. Cameron follow Mr. Blake, and after waiting about an hour, during which the Sheriff intimated that he would be obliged to close the nomination, Mr. Fisher's friends proposed Messrs. Fraser, Stanton and Dumble of Cobourg, with a considerable pause between them, and the following gentlemen were proposed in the order in which they stand: Messrs. Jacques, Blake, Cameron, Cockburn and Kerr.

Mr. Fisher made an excellent speech, as did Messrs. Stanton, Fraser, and Mayor Kerr, particularly the latter, who gave a stirring address. Mr. Gifford, of course, has been obliged to change his tactics, and professes to be ready to support good measures, and Mr. Cockburn followed in a similar strain.

Mr. Cameron put forth a violent harangue of over an hour in length, principally occupied in venting spite and fault finding.

Mr. Blake gave a calm and temperate address, characterized alike by wisdom and prudence. He said in reference to his want of experience, honesty of purpose, &c.: "That his home was in Canada, his friends were in Canada, his love was for Canada, and he intended to do his duty." All parties united in acknowledging his superior talent. The meeting seemed to be enthusiastically in favor of Mr. Fisher, and the general impression is that he will be elected by a majority of about two hundred.

Cobourg, Dec. 29th, 1871.

Municipal Elections.

The following are returned, so far as heard from:—

TURBOW.—J. J. Farley, Esq., Reeve by acclamation. Harford Ashley, 159 majority, Deputy Reeve; and for Councillors, Owen Weare and Hugh Campbell.

AMSTERDAM.—Reeve, W. G. Stafford; Deputy Reeve, J. M. Scott; Councillors, Willet Way, Reuben Young, and R. N. Hunt.

PICTOR.—Mr. Wm. Owens was re-elected Mayor, and Mr. Thos. Shannon Reeve. Mr. Thos. is Deputy Reeve by acclamation. The Councilmen are Messrs. R. S. Robin, Douglass Dingman, S. M. Conger, Nelson Wycoff, Joseph Redmond, Finlay McCausg and three others whose names we have not learned.

ELIZAB.—Hon. B. Flint Reeve; Councillors, Messrs. Robt. Barry, J. W. Turner, Patrick Mulroy and Simon Higgins.

SIDNEY.—Baltus Rose was elected Reeve by acclamation. Messrs. Gray and Armstrong were returned as Deputy Reeves, and Messrs. Chisholm and D. Vandusen as Councillors.

THURRO.—George Gordon Reeve by acclamation. T. McCabe, W. Jeffe, James Young, and C. Francis Councillors.

MANRO.—Solomon Johns, Reeve; Messrs. T. Pierce, H. Jones, J. J. Cook and A. Aihart, Councillors.

RAWDON.—A. Glass, Reeve; Tazoo, Samuel, Deputy Reeve; Messrs. Jas. Cook, Walter Bailey, Samuel Vandervoort, Councillors.

TOWNENGA.—W. Frizzell was elected Reeve by a majority of 9 over Mr. John White, P. Moore, Curry and Appleby were elected Councillors.

NAPANE.—A. L. Morden, Esq., Barrister, was elected Mayor of Napane.

Some one once sent in a piece to Elliston on approval, and hearing nothing of it, went to inquire. "My dear sir," said the man, "I think nothing whatever about the MSS. of yours. Pray, what was the play called?" The other told him. "And the plot?" The dramatist explained. "Well," exclaimed Elliston, "I am very sorry, indeed; I recollect nothing of it, but (taking a drawer full of MSS.) you can take any three of these you please."

Melancholy Death at Red River.

The Press a few days ago gave the particulars of the freezing to death of a man at Holy Cross, in the Red River Valley, on Sunday the 10th inst. From a gentleman who has just arrived from that section of the country, further particulars of the melancholy event are obtained, and they throw a romantic and unusual interest around the misfortune. It was stated that deceased was a Canadian, which presumption was based on the fact that he had come to St. Paul from Toronto. It seems, however, that this was a mistake, as he was an English gentleman of wealth and distinction, named Miles Fletcher, who was formerly an officer in the "Life Guards," the most aristocratic regiment in the services of Great Britain. Mr. Fletcher was a second cousin to the Marquis of Lorne, Queen Victoria's new son-in-law, and was widely known and esteemed in England. He came to America in pursuit of health, and after travelling over this country and Canada, he concluded to make his home in Red River Valley, and had made up his mind to open up a large farm, and build a residence in the vicinity of Holy Cross on Red River, in Dakota Territory. All these happy plans were abruptly dissipated by the sad fate which overtook him on that cold and stormy Sunday. The remains of Mr. Fletcher will be taken to England for burial, for which purpose a metallic coffin has been ordered from St. Paul, and as soon as the preparations are completed, the young and inconsolable widow, so suddenly left alone in the wilderness of the West, thousands of miles from home and friends, will accompany the body of her husband to its last resting place in her native Isle.

Another Cow.

Since Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over the fatal kerosene lamp in Chicago, other bovines are putting for equal notoriety. The one who has succeeded the best hails from Bay City, Michigan, and belongs to a Mrs. Lambert. One evening not long ago, she—the cow, not Mrs. L.—put her head into a barrel. Not being able to get her head out, and becoming terrified at her condition, she blindly forced her way into the wood-shed, thence into the kitchen, and thence into the dining-room of the house, becoming all the while more furious. From this room she made her way into the parlor, throwing down and trampling under foot every thing that came into her way. The cow next rushed into the bed-room, and attempted to mount the bed occupied by Mrs. L. and two little children. Fortunately, at this crisis, help had been summoned, arrived. But a neighbor who attempted to enter the window was knocked down by the barrel—or the cow. At length the children were secured and passed through the window, the mother following, and the excited cow was left to calm her mind as best she might. So goes the story.

Potterfection.

A most remarkable case of petrification is that of the body of a lady well known in Kalamazoo. On attempting to remove the body from the College Cemetery for interment in the Mountain Home Cemetery, the sexton found the coffin so heavy that he had to procure the assistance of a number of men. It was then raised to the surface, but in so doing the coffin was broken and revealed the marble like body within. An examination was made, and the features were found to be perfectly preserved; even the petals of flowers upon her breast were marbleized and intact. The folds of her clothing and everything were wonderfully preserved, and the whole body and covering were statueque in appearance. It is said the coffin was full of water when opened.—Owego Advertiser.

Bliss on Women.

At a recent dinner in New York, at which no ladies were present, a man, in responding to the toast—"Women," dwelt almost solely upon the frailty of the sex,—exclaiming that the best of them were little better than the worst,—the chief difference being in their surroundings.

At the conclusion of the speech, a gentleman rose and said: "I trust the gentleman, in the application of his remarks, refers to his own mother and sisters, not to ours."

The effect of this just and timely rebuke was overwhelming; and the malice of women was covered with shame and confusion.

This incident serves an excellent purpose in prefacing a few words on the subject.

Of all the evils prevalent among men, we know of none more blighting in its moral effect than the tendency to spend slightly of the morals of woman. Nor is there anything in which young men are so thoroughly mistaken, as in the estimate they form of the integrity of woman—not their own mothers and sisters but God, but of others whom they forget are somebody else's mother and sisters.

Let young men remember that their chief happiness in life depends on their faith in women. No worldly wisdom, no misanthropic philosophy, no generalization can cover or weaken this fundamental truth. It stands like the record of God himself—for it is nothing less than this—and should put an everlasting seal upon lips that are wont to speak.

AMERICAN WIT ABROAD.

An English paper says: "A story is told which may be commended to Parisian gentlemen as containing a valuable hint. Two Americans were dining with two ladies at a hotel in Baden-Baden. A Russian Prince, who wished to pick a quarrel with them, purchased two bouquets and sent them to the Americans ladies with his compliments. The Americans glanced pleasantly at the Russian and sent him by the waiter who brought the flowers, two Napoleons. The offender was, it is added, so chagrined that he left the room. It is thus shown that people who have abandoned dwelling, may be by no means so defenceless against personal affronts as might be supposed."

M. DU CHAILLON IN LAPLAND.—While Dr. Livingstone is reported to be making his way slowly back to the African coast, M. Du Chaillon, the discoverer of the gorilla, has been spending the summer and fall among the Laplanders, shooting polar bears and travelling with reindeer. English papers announce his safe return to Stockholm, where he has been received and entertained by the King of Sweden and welcomed by the nobles. Private letters received from M. Du Chaillon inform us that he has had an adventurous and interesting experience among the Laplanders, has visited the extreme northern point of Europe and been in the sold of the Polar regions as well as he did the torrid heats of Equatorial Africa. He was to sail for New York in the steamer which left England on the 19th November, and will consequently be welcomed by his friends of the Geographical Society in a few days. He will hardly bring another animal as curious as the Gorilla for the naturalists; but his adventures and explorations in the little visited country of the Laps will no doubt be recounted in a book of travels. From the Equator to the Pole is a wide stretch even in these days and for an American traveller.

they had heard, and the lights, and they too, forthwith took their departure. So the old house was quite falling into decay when these two brave men came down and took possession of it, and fitting up comfortably two or three of the most comfortable rooms, and there they kept bachelors' hall, untroubled and undisturbed, at least by spirits. A few days after the announcement of the arrival of the stranger in the village, a widow lady named Danby came to make a visit to the Fairland. She had with her a little girl, her only child, a willful spoiled little thing who took her own course in everything, utterly regardless of the wishes or commands of others. In the afternoon, when she was preparing to start with her pupils for their accustomed walk, Mrs. Danby said: "Bella, will you accompany you, Miss Elwyn, but you must take good care of her."

"I will do my best, Mrs. Danby, said Agnes, but one thing I shall insist upon, and that is that Bella shall obey me as my own little scholars do."

The Grand Junction Railway

The forward work by way of survey and preliminary of this road is attracting attention abroad. It was intended by the Directors after passing Peterboro to touch at Fenelon Falls, so as to tap the Country to the north of the present Railway terminus of the roads penetrating that country. The Lindsay people, with a sharp eye to business, saw that in this arrangement they were being left some miles to the south of this great Junction—and hence, when the road has effected its work, and cities, towns and villages sprang into existence at points on the road—now only marked as junctions of streams, head or foot of lake navigation, or other eligible points, the Town they now boast of would necessarily lapse into comparative insignificance. Awakening to a realization of these pending exigencies, they on Tuesday despatched a delegation to Belleville, consisting of all the six-foot dignitaries of the Town—headed by Mr. R. C. Wood, M. P. P.—a noble specimen of the old Liberal stock of the Bay of Quinte district, freighted with papers and powers to do all and sundry acts that might be necessary to avert this calamity. On Wednesday morning they were at once taken in hand by the genial and practical Board of the Road, and after some little discussion, it was finally concluded by the grace of the pious delegation to put upon paper, under signature and seal, a treaty stipulating, that for, and in consideration of the sum of $50,000, to be paid as a bonus by the Town of Lindsay, the previous determination to build up sundry commercial centres to the north of Lindsay was abrogated, and the more direct line to Lindsay was fixed as the route of the projected road. This treaty being fairly accomplished, all parties thereto were happy, and hence an invitation to visit our noble Asylum was most acceptable. The afternoon was therefore spent amongst the Deaf and Dumb, and the evening was set apart for a little tea-party at the Deaf House, for the discussion of meals and spiritual beverages, and the interchange of familiar regards. The evening was spent most happily; the Lindsay delegation, proved themselves the compeers of our best men, not only in diplomacy but in social qualities. They were all public speakers, Mr. Morrison exhibited vocal powers rivaling our famous Neilson. Mr. Wood avowed his politics to have reference mainly to the Surplus which principally belongs to the eastern section of the country through its timber lands. The 80 cents a head derived from the General Government, pays all the annual expenses of the Province which belongs equally to the east and west, but the east owns the surplus and it would be chiefly his policy to see that the east had fair play. Speech-making and jollity were continued until twelve o'clock, when the party broke up, evidently well-pleased with themselves and with all the world.

Local and General

L. M. I. S.—There will be a meeting of the Ladies Mutual Improvement society in the Marble Hall to-night.

Y. M. C. A.—Remember the meeting this evening. Special business will be transacted, and a good attendance is requested.

OTTAWA CITY.—The nomination for Ottawa City takes place to-day. Mr. G. H. Preston declines to offer himself in opposition to Mr. Scott, and therefore the latter gentleman will be returned by acclamation.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES.—Nominations and elections to fill the places of those School Trustees who have resigned, will take place on Wednesday next. We have not heard of much interest being taken yet.

IMPROVE THE CHANCE.—The soft weather to-day affords a splendid chance for dilatory shopkeepers and other lay-folks to take away the ice and snow from the sidewalk in front of their shops and dwellings, and we are glad to see them improve it.

LEAFY YEAR TACTICS.—We learn that some of the young ladies of Belleville are already vindicating their rights to Leafy Year privileges by choosing their favorites and clothing. The proceedings are romantically, but confiding "parities" are made disconsolate thereby.

NORTH SIMCOE.—The election for this Riding took place yesterday. The candidates were, Dr. Ramsay and Mr. Ardagh—the former for the Government and the latter Opposition. The latest from Collingwood announces Ardagh probably elected by a majority of 800.

GRACE MARKS.—Petitions are in circulation at Kingston, undergoing signature for presentation to His Excellency the Governor General, praying the release of the convict Grace Marks from a sentence of penal servitude for life in the Kingston Penitentiary. The petitions are being numerous, signed by the citizens.

IMPROVING THEIR TIME.—A gentleman informs us that during the second alarm of fire last evening, and while he was on his way thither, he detected a man stealing fire wood, evidently under the impression that no one would observe him just then. He dropped the wood when discovered, and made tracks at a Dexterous rate. Watch your wood piles.

BURNED TO DEATH.—A report comes from Sandwich that the dwelling of a farmer named William Halford, reading about seven miles from that place, was burned on the night of the 2nd inst., and the family escaped with much difficulty, and only remembered that a farm hand named Daniel Morell was asleep in the building when rescue was hopeless. A few charred bones were all that remained to tell of the casualty. The deceased was aged about 18, and it is said leaves relatives in Greenfield, Mich., where he formerly resided.

POP THE QUESTION.—The leap year, inaugurated with the customary ceremonies of Monday last, is now upon us, and according to an ancient legend the ladies are allowed an additional minute privilege to pop the question. In consequence of this we have heard it jokingly remarked, but with what truth we cannot say, that there are certainly bachelors and fascinating widowers who are singled out by the fair sex, and in view of the favourable event have already decided the preliminaries, and will at no distant day urge a proclamation of the banns.

Wm. Robinson, M. P. P.

Yesterday's Whig comments upon the recent Municipal elections in Kingston, and especially the defeat of Mr. Robinson in Rideau Ward, as follows:—

"It seems to be forgotten amidst the general outcry, that opposition to Mr. Robinson did not arise out of his votes during the recent government crisis. Messrs. McIntyre and Briggs took the field long before these votes were given, and presented themselves as residents of the Ward, in opposition to Messrs. Robinson and Livingston, who are non-residents. Mr. McIntyre expressly stated at different times that it was not on political grounds, but on the ground of non-residence, that he was opposed to Messrs. Robinson and Livingston. Though Mr. McIntyre and Mr. Briggs are both respectable men, and residents of the Ward, Rideau Ward has done injury to itself by rejecting Mr. Robinson because he did not happen to reside in the Ward. He served it long and faithfully. As Alderman, as Mayor and as a member of the Finance Committee, men of all shades unite in saying that he has done good service to the city."

(To the Editor of the Ontario.)

Sir,—It would have pleased me exceedingly to have A. F. Wood, Esq., the Warden of the County present at that part of the dinner last night to have heard his brother, and declare himself a Reformer of the old stamp. He said there was no mistaking his position—he was a Reformer and if at Ottawa he would oppose the Government. How the Warden would have winced under so crushing a commentary on his own penny track-tracing after the powers that be. He was at the dinner during the fore part of the evening, but he must have left before, or when, his brother's manly avowal of principle was made.

REFORMER.

—A very valuable bed of gypsum has been discovered on the farm of Mr. John M. Garland, about two and a half miles from Caledonia.

Fire Last Night

MR. BURRELL'S AXE FACTORY BURNED.

Between eight and nine o'clock last evening an alarm of fire came from the upper part of the Town, and a bright red flame illuminated the heavens, and brought out a great crowd of spectators. The unfortunate building this time proved to be Mr. E. Burrell's extensive Axe Factory on Mill Street, which was soon enveloped in flames, despite the efforts of the Firemen to the contrary. There were several entertainments and meetings on the topic, but it was evident that for time at least the fire was the center of attraction. Even the ladies turned out in considerable numbers, and by their presence sympathized with the energetic owner, who suffered so heavy a loss.

The Firemen were on hand with usual promptness, and their systematized efforts to suppress the flames, or failing in this, to confine them to the building in which they originated, never appeared to better advantage. They all understood their business, and did it, without any misunderstanding. There were many expressions of commiseration and meetings on the topic, but it was evident that for time at least the fire was the center of attraction. The Firemen were on hand with usual promptness, and their systematized efforts to suppress the flames, or failing in this, to confine them to the building in which they originated, never appeared to better advantage. They all understood their business, and did it, without any misunderstanding. There were many expressions of commiseration and meetings on the topic, but it was evident that for time at least the fire was the center of attraction. #### Presentation

During the meeting of the St. Vincent De Paul Society of Belleville, held in the vestry of St. Michael's Church on Sunday evening last, the members presented the Very Rev. James Farrelly, V. G., with a beautiful Gold Cross, as a mark of their appreciation of his services in connection with the welfare of the Society. The Cross is made of solid gold, plain, but a beautiful piece of workmanship. The words engraved thereon, viz.—"A token of affection from the members of the St. Vincent De Paul Society of Belleville, to the Very Rev. James Farrelly, V. G., New Year's Eve, 1871," will always express the feelings which prompted the making of the presentation.

The following is the address made on the occasion, and the Very Rev. Mr. Farrelly's reply thereto:—

Very Rev. J. Farrelly, V. G.

The members of the Conference of St. Vincent De Paul Society, Belleville, desiring to show their appreciation of the active and warm interest which you have taken, not only in its formation but also in its welfare and advancement, beg to present you with the accompanying Cross, as a slight but sincere mark of gratitude for the many favors which we have received at your hands. By the assistance of God, we feel that our Conference has, even so far, brought joy and gladness to the homes of many who are rendered destitute by the decrees of an all-wise Providence, and we have no fears but that aided by your wise counsel we shall religio a part, at least, of the distress by which we are unfortunately surrounded.

In conclusion, Very Rev. Sir, we hope that you may long be spared to wear the gift which it is our pleasing duty to present to you to-day; and that the year we shall shortly enter upon, may be to you one of true happiness and pleasure.

Belleville, Dec. 31st, 1871.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the St. Vincent De Paul Society.

Your Address, conveyed in words so kind, and coming from gentlemen devoted to the well-being of the poor, though, as I consider, too flattering, and in terms far above my deserving, gives me unfeigned pleasure. I accept it as the expression of the sentiments of my entire flock, through those who have had the best opportunity of knowing whatever efforts I have been and am making for the good of all, and especially God's beloved poor. When I came among you, I saw the necessity of some organization by means of which distress could be systematically attended to, and my thoughts naturally turned toward that Society, which was effecting so much good in the large number and cities of this continent, as well as in Europe, to set to work and laid the foundation; I cast the seed and thank God, it fell on productive soil. This gentleman is my merit; to you belongs the great good accomplished. The many deserving poor who have been relieved are witnesses of your associated labors, and the Catholic community now hail your Society as a blessing.

This very beautiful Gold Cross, sacred emblem of man's redemption, and appropriate gift for whose office is to preach the Gospel, shall

MIDNIGHT REPORT.

Chicago, Jan. 6.
The Grand Duke and party left Chicago for St. Louis this a. m. Previous to leaving, Alex. handed Mayor Medill $5,000 for the benefit of the poor. He also passed over some thirty or forty letters received by him while here, all from females asking for assistance in some shape. One young lady from western New York begged through six closely written pages for a sum of money to enable her to marry a widower whom she loved dearly. They were both so poor that they could not marry without money. The Duke instructed the Mayor, if he found in the letters any appeal he deemed worthy, to honor it in a moderate way.

MORNING DESPATCHES

New York, Jan. 6.
The Stevens Battery, some many years in course of construction, is now finished, for as it can be in its present position, and is ready to be launched.
A San Francisco despatch, January 3rd, published in a western exchange, says that Mrs. Laura D. Fair, the convicted murderer, died in prison in that city Saturday, Dec. 30th. No particulars given.

The Grand Jury to-day brought in new bills of indictment against ex-Aldermen Montgomery, Walsh and Macaulay for offering to receive from citizens various sums, varying from 2 to 5,000 dollars for putting a motion through the Common Council. Other members of the Council are to be arraigned in the same manner.

The Mahopai, iron clad, was ordered to-day; other vessels will soon be placed in commission.

It is supposed vessels now preparing are designed to strengthen the North Atlantic fleet and to guard American ships from molestation by Spanish cruisers, care being exercised to select competent commanders, who will carry out the protective policy of the Government.

Philadelphia, Jan. 5.
President Grant is enjoying a quiet visit here. A formal reception takes place to-morrow at the Commercial Exchange, when Secretary Boutwell will deliver his views on direct importation.

THE VERY LATEST.

Quebec, Jan. 6.
Steamship Tripoli from Boston, arrived.

The bulletins from Sandringham for the last three days show a steady and satisfactory improvement in the condition of the Prince of Wales.

Joseph Gillott, the Steel Pen manufacturer, is dead.

A terrible thunder storm hailed Fort-mouth and vicinity last night. Hail fell to a depth of two inches. Glass in nearly all windows in the city exposed to the storm, was destroyed.

Brussels, Jan. 6.
Despatches from Namur report that workmen of Sclaigneaux and Vesin have struck work for higher wages, and a reduction of hours of labor. There has been much turbulence and disorder since the strike commenced.

The Gen's d'Armes have been stoned, and some of them seriously injured. The local authorities finding themselves unable to preserve order have sent troops.

Similar labor troubles are imminent at Charleroi, and as a precautionary measure companies cavalry will be dispatched there forthwith.

The Lumber Trade on the Georgian Bay.

The Georgian Bay, a magnificent sheet of water—its own island is skirted by a finely timbered country, from which the lumber mills of the district draw their supply of logs. At favorable points along the whole stretch of coast from Nottawasaga Bay to French River, and the Wabigoon, communication to Muskoka Lake, saw mills are established. The numerous, large and important streams that flow into the bay afford easy means to bring the timber down from the woods to the shore. These rivers include the Severn, connecting with Lake Couchiching, and Lake Simcoe, the Spanish River, the Serpentine River, the French River, the Nottawasaga, etc., all fine streams. At Collingwood there is a very large saw mill, owned by Messrs. Hotchkiss & Co., which manufactures yearly some 15,000,000 feet of lumber. The logs come from the district of country lying on the banks of the Nottawasaga River, some 20 or 30 miles to the west of Collingwood. Across Nottawasaga Bay, through the picturesque islands known as "The Giant's Tomb," the "Watchers," "Christian Island," etc., are other mills. At Penetanguishene are the Larney mills manufacturing some 8,000,000 feet of lumber yearly, and the mill of Messrs. Cook, Christopher & Co., manufacturing about 4,000,000 feet. Following the line of coast to the north we come to the mills on the banks of the Severn River and the Wabigoon, owned by the Georgian Bay Lumber Company, of which it is understood that Mr. Dodge, the most extensive of our northern "Lumber Kings," is the chief stockholder. These mills manufacture some 12,000,000 feet of lumber. On Lake Couchiching, which flows into the Severn, is a large property known as the "Millers Mill," manufacturing 8,000,000 feet; and further up on the same line of waterway community, at Antleron, on Lake Simcoe, there is a mill manufacturing about 4,000,000 feet per year, owned by Mr. Dodge. To the north of the Georgian Bay Spanish River, owned by Messrs. Chaffey & Fredding-burn, formerly Messrs. Smith & Wyatt, manufacturing about 12,000,000 feet; a mill on Serpentine River, belonging to Messrs. Walsh & Busby, manufacturing 4,000,000 feet; and one on Blind River known as "Rosen's mill," working at the same figure. There are on the main shore opposite Manitoulin Island, The Waddell mills also on the bay, is owned by parties in Detroit, manufacturing 8,000,000 feet. At St. Ignace, near St. Ignace, of about equal capacity. At Byng Inlet, the Muskoka Lumber Company have two very large saws, each manufacturing about 3,000,000 feet. It will be seen from these figures that on the shores of the Georgian Bay alone there are 140,000,000 feet of lumber per season.

RIGHT AND WRONG.—There is no way in which you can benefit our readers more than by recommending to them for use "Johnson's Anodyne." It is adapted to almost all the purposes of a Family Medicine; and as a specific for coughs, colds, whooping cough, croup, asthma, and all lung difficulties, it has a reputation that ever wins or loses. The property of giving comfort and relief to horses, cattle and sheep, was discussed in the issue of the 1st inst. and we believe that in every case but one they benefited in favor of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powder. Good judgment.

Thousands of people are now carefully allowing themselves to drift through the winter months in a state of discomfort, under the false delusion that they are troubled with nothing but a slight cold. How necessary it is, that a cold should be cared for from its inception, and every exertion used to get rid of it. "Johnson's Anodyne" will stop the itching cough in a few minutes, and by their influence on the bronchial and pulmonary organs all forms of colds and coughs will soon disappear. It is a powerful and safe remedy. Sold by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25c per bottle.

ALABAMA.—Where on this globe can we go but the dampness of Yankee City? STOKES, we had walked past a short distance into the town when we reached the northern depot of Dr. Ayer's medicines is full display among the various shops and counters of the town. There the familiar, homelike names of his Cherry Pectoral, Pills, &c., salute us from the exterior and the interior of the store which shows more business than its neighbors, and proves that these simple but sure remedies are even more powerful to save than to ourselves when they visit every fire-side. Thomas' Electric Oil Work Ten Times its Weight in Gold. Do you know anything of it? If not, it is time you did.

PAIN cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common Sore Throat. One bottle cures Rheumatism. Fifty cents' worth cures an old standing Cough. One or two bottles cure bad cases of Piles and Kidney Troubles. Six to eight applications cure any case of Eczema, Nipples or Inflamed Breast. One bottle cures the itching of the scalp. Another, who has had Asthma for years, says: "I have half of a 50 cent bottle left, and $100 would not buy it if I could get no more."

Rufus Robison of Nunda, N. Y., writes: "One small bottle of Electric Oil, restored the voice where the person had spoken above a whisper for five years." Ray J. Malory of Wyoming, N. Y., writes: "Your Electric Oil cured me of Bronchitis in one week. Dealers all over the country say: 'We have never sold a medicine that has given such complete satisfaction as this.'"

It is supposed of six of the best oils that are known. It is as good to take for external use, and is believed to be more powerful superior to anything ever made. Will save you much suffering and many dollars of expense. Is sold by one or more dealers in every place. Price, 25c.

to her hand. At first Agnes hoped that the note might contain tidings of her brother; but though disappointed in this respect, she was not without some consolation in the thought that the note was something and grateful for her trouble.

There was nothing I can do for you if I have a friend, will you call upon me.

The note was signed "C. H."

At first Agnes merely said, in a despairing tone, "Oh no! nothing can be done."

But, feeling that a different answer should be sent to a message so kind, she tore off a bit of the paper, and wrote upon it:

that the evidence that drives a man of Mr. Rogers' position from Municipal Government of any kind, is not only an insult to him, but an insult to the community that degrades it.

The most remarkable feature of the men in the town have used the means within their reach more generously for public advancement than had not one of all the honored list propose so much for the future.

We say, therefore, that we regret the conduct exhibited towards him, and it may justly be feared that what is being done in this instance will be looked upon as a serious light in the future.

It was a stretch of generosity on the part of Mr. Rogers when he consented to enter the Board, and the public, instead of allowing him to be an agent, should have rallied round him and elected him by acclamation.

Mr. Wensley's desire for the office should have had nothing whatever to do with the matter.

Immigration

The winter is rapidly passing away and what is being done towards securing our share of next season's immigration from Europe?

We are constrained to ask this question, for now is the time to disseminate information of such a nature, among the laboring classes of those countries which furnish the principal portion of our immigrants, as will induce them to shape their arrangements in spring to make this country their destination.

Just so soon as the winter breaks and the exposures of emigrant life are less oppressive, the tide from Northern Europe begins to set in.

Their object is to effect a settlement as early in the season as possible, so as to be better prepared for the first cold weather.

From Ottawa we hear of occasional meetings and discussions in connection with the Immigration Department, but with the exception of a few directions very little has been accomplished.

Agents should, ere this, have been at their respective posts, and busily engaged in directing the work entrusted to them. It was expected that when the change took place, and Mr. Pope assumed the control of the Department, that many of the deficiencies complained of under Mr. Dunkin's management would be speedily righted.

BY TELEGRAPH

London, Jan. 10.
The Hon. Sir John Lubbock, addressed a Conservative meeting at Bechamstead, tonight. He stigmatised the policy of the Government as impractical and extravagant, and alluding to the fact that the administration of affairs in that country has been eminently unsuccessful.

Madrid, Jan. 10.
It is announced that Legation at the first sitting of the Cortes explain the programme of the Government recently formed by him, and will demand of its representatives the people a decision between his policy and that of Zorilla.

Matamoros, Jan. 10.
A despatch from Mexico, dated Dec. 31, says: Secretary Mijoo telegraphs that Diaz was routed in Oaxaca with the loss of his artillery, equipment and many killed and prisoners.

London, Dec. 11.
A telegram from Lincoln says a banquet was given to Mr. Butt last evening about 200 persons were present. Mr. Butt announced that he will fight the Home Rule campaign in the House of Commons, and claim for Ireland industrial and municipal privileges. The National Anthem was played at the banquet.

London, 6 a.m., Jan. 11.
The Prince of Wales will remain at Sandringham until he has completely recovered from his illness.

London, Jan. 11.
Another terrible explosion is reported in Wales, by which a number of lives were lost and a large amount of property destroyed.

The disaster occurred yesterday in Oakwood Colliery while the men were at work. Many were about to make their escape, but one gang was shut off and all have probably perished. Eleven have been taken out dead, and parties are now exploring the mines for others who are missing.

Immediately after the explosion flames broke out and the extensive works and machinery were entirely destroyed.

A special despatch from Berlin to the Echo states that the representative of Great Britain has delivered to the Emperor of Germany the arbitration agreed upon by England, and Wales, under the Treaty of Washington in the memorandum of the British Government, relative to the San Juan boundary question.

An Acquisitive Clergyman.
A noted Methodist local preacher named Hammond lately died near Charlottesville, Ind., at the age of 80. His salary during life had run from $200 to $300, never exceeding the latter rate. Having no family, it was not expected that his estate would need much administration, yet his whole effects footed to no less than $350,000, which was a fortune that astonished his own relatives as much as any one else. It was known that he had a small bank account, and in his library had invested some in real estate. While looking carefully through the house, the administrator came upon a very large trunk, hidden under a chest, which opened into the room which the minister occupied during his life. When it was drawn forth, it was found to be a chest which had been required to be burgled. It was filled with gold, silver, and government bonds. The wife of Mr. Hammond had known the trunk was there, but was ignorant of its contents, and thinks that her husband must have collected a large hidden treasure during Morgan's raid on Indiana. Bonds were found also giving him a title to land which had become valuable by keeping. He was not a miserly man, but gave what was considered liberality for him; and his wealth was the result of small but uninterrupted accumulations turned to immediate account, a cleaving exhibit of what toil will accomplish if used instead of wasted.

They are digging up and removing the old cemetery in Paris. It was attached to the original church of St. Peter and St. Paul, and dates back to before the 6th century. The church named was a small one, but St. Germaine. It was once the tomb of Peter Lombard Bishop of Paris, the renowned author of "Maitre des Sentences," and in the cemetery were buried several members of the great house of Conti, D'Agnessan and Du Moulin, the famous lawyers. De Thou and Ducloux, the historians, and other illustrious persons. Most of these, however, have been already exhumed, and taken to the Catacombs, in 1794. The coffin that was found by the workmen are, in some instances, of great antiquity. Some of them are of stone and some of wood, and others of lead. The age of most of them can be readily determined by the ornaments upon them. All the heads of the skeletons are found turned toward the east, after the custom of the primitive Church. Remains of this sort become useful, no doubt, with the investigation of large cities, yet the necessity suggests the wisdom in all cases of locating cemeteries at a distance from the centres of population. Of course, in the Revolutionary period the burying-place now disturbed was far out from the city of Paris, but even here the necessity, for the sake of absolute permanency, it was not far enough.

The Brantford system of water works introduced by Messrs. C.H. Waterhouse & Co., of that town, is gaining favor in Canada. Recently Mr. Alfred Perry of Montreal, an excellent authority on such matters, recommended the Brantford system for supplying water to the upper portion of the city. The upper portion of Montreal, is, in fact, a town by itself, at a considerable elevation above the rest, and Mr. Perry seems rightly to consider it the best and the cheapest plan to make for it special arrangements, the whole large extent of the lower part of the city being reached with a much lighter pressure than is required for the upper part.

The Harpers are and to be strong Catholics, while the Appletons, their great rivals, are sturdy Protestants.

The Difference.—The Harpers' Journal gives this as a sketch from real life. It certainly illustrates a wrong that should be righted. When Ben and I were children, I was the elder. When we went to school, I studied more than he did; I graduated before he did; I read more books than he did; if we got into an argument, I was pretty sure to get the better of him—in short, I was ahead of Ben, and I patronized a profession. I cringed, and flinched, and fused; He went into business; I dusted, and arranged, and beautified. He is growing rich; I am growing poor. He can travel if he chooses, he can invite me to go with him if he chooses; I am at home with him if he chooses; I am independent, I do not depend on Ben. Ben is a successful bachelor, with the world before him; I am an unsuccessful maiden, with no definite prospects. Ah, Ben, this will never do—just wait, sir, till I take a start!

Omaha, Neb. Jan. 12.
Wheat arrived this morning. As this was the Russian New Year's Day the day received many happy greetings from the Union Pacific Railroad. The train that left at 3 o'clock this morning, for the East, had not arrived at Medicine Bow, and the one that left Medicine Bow yesterday at 2:30 p. m., had not yet arrived at Laurium. It is reported that the train and one or two westward bound trains are at Lockhart.

New Orleans, Jan. 12.
The Carter case came up in the First District Court today, and ten or twelve witnesses were examined. At the conclusion of the trial, Judge Abell remarked that as the prisoner had not asked to be discharged he would not order the arrest of the Counsel and commit him to the jail. It was clear that the killing was done by a policeman, but admitting it was done by an officer from the Gov. Saloon, the Judge, recognized Col. Carter as speaker of the House until there was a fully organized Senate and House to order otherwise. Even had Carter ordered the arrest of the Counsel and commit him to the jail, the House at that time, had no power to do so, or else, he could not be held responsible for killing Whelan, because Whelan had been arrested by a not a member during the trial.

Immense crowds thronged the Court room, corridors and adjoining streets who cheered Carter upon his release. When he reached the street the crowd gathered and insisted upon his delivering an address to-night at the City Statue on Canal St., and a meeting was held there, and addressed by Carter and others. Carter stated he, at the head of the legal members of the Legislature, would proceed to-morrow at noon to the Mechanics' Institute, and demand admission, and the dispersal of the armed police force from the Hall of the House of Representatives over which he, as the legal Speaker of the House, and will want the police force and all other armed forces there to disperse. He said he wished the people to witness that they were peacefully and demanded their rights.

THE VERY LATEST.

London, Jan. 13.
The tenants of the Prince of Wales at Sandringham, in a body, waited on his Royal Highness yesterday, and congratulated him on his recovery.

Paris, Jan. 13.
The Tariff Bill submitted by Emmanet, Puyotier to the Assembly, yesterday imposed the following duties:—On wool, 80¢ per 100 kilograms; Cotton, 4¢; Raisins, from 12¢ to 17¢; Copper, 15¢; Onions, from 15¢ to 18¢; Hops, 60¢.

London, Jan. 13.
The London Times this morning pointing to the cases of the steamers Florida, Nevada and Virginia, says the Americans by the light of their own recent experience, must see that the suppression of illegal equipments by England during the war of the rebellion was pronounced difficult. A hint is thrown out that the Fenian raids in Canada were not always so promptly or effectively checked as they might have been by the United States authorities.

Gen. Badeau, American Consul General, writes to the Times to correct an error of the journal in stating that the late (General) Hallock captured Memphis and Fort Donelson.

U. S. brig Jessie How was boarded near Calais Thursday, by some French fishermen and was found to be abandoned, although she was in good condition. It is supposed that a mutiny occurred on board; that the Captain was murdered, and the crew left the vessel to escape the consequences. Nothing has been heard of the men, and it is feared they were drowned.

HELEN JOSEPHINE MANSFIELD.—Miss Helen Josephine Mansfield, the beautiful woman over whom James Fisk, Jr., the Prince of Erie, and Edward S. Stokes have quarreled for many years, is a divorced wife, having been the wife of Mr. Frank Lawlor, the actor. She secured her divorce after becoming acquainted with Mr. Fisk, who became madly enamored of her on first sight. Before she separated from her divorcee, Mr. Fisk desired her to accompany him to his magnificent estate, the magnificent castle at Longwood, near New York, No. 359, West 23rd street, for which he paid $25,000. As soon as the divorce was obtained, Miss Mansfield, who assumed her maiden name, occupied the house, $40,000 in superb furniture was placed in it and paid for by Fisk, who also gave her $50,000 in money to place at her disposal. This money she afterward handed to Fisk to speculate with for her benefit. When she and Fisk parted, for he falling in love with Stokes, then Fisk refused to give her back this sum. Hence, she sued him, and threatened to publish the private notes sent her by Mr. Fisk during the period of two years, and also to expose the conspiracy of the Erie managers who had done the most of her fortune in her hands. Fisk, in a junction served upon her and Stokes to prevent their publishing this matter, and, as our special dispatch explains, out of this has grown his death.

How TO CATCH A WIFE. New York is really the city of deceptions. A man must not only look sharp as to his company, but he can hardly trust his own senses. The well-formed man he meets in the street may be indebted for his elegant proportion to the genius of his tailor, and the beauty of his face may be half padding. A young man of quite elegant exterior passed in one of our fashionable watering places for a man of wealth. He became friendly with the daughter of a wealthy merchant, who, besides what her father would bestow, had a handsome fortune in her own right. He referred to a well-known gentleman of New York, who thought him rich, and who knew the amount of his income tax. He was accepted and married. It was found that he was a clerk in a dry goods house on quite an ordinary salary. He secured money enough to pay a good sized income tax. His investment proved more lucrative than a Wall street speculation, as it secured him a rich wife. Several instances have been known in which parties have made a fortune among the fashionable at the springs, and elsewhere, and have got into the hands of wealthy people, and returned to New York, hired a handsomely furnished house in a good location for a month or two, have received their stylish friends in style, married their daughters, and then returned to the dry goods store, and they really believe. It is a pity that the same system cannot be carried out by examining the men who are in the hands of the wealthy in the same way.

Montreal, Jan. 16.
The siege of Mier has been raised. The revolutionaries under Gen. Duran, having been reinforced by four or five hundred men from Monterey. Gen. Cortina's force fell back across San Juan River, yesterday into Camargo where the enemy could attack them in force. Cortina's precipitated retreat prevented a general engagement, which the revolutionaries appeared to seek.

New York, Jan. 16.
The World's London special says it is reported that the Montreal divorce case will soon be reopened with the Prince of Wales as co-respondent. Another divorce case has been filed on trial of which the Duke of Edinburgh will appear as co-respondent.

Washington, Jan. 16.
No little opposition is beginning to be developed to the 23rd and 30th Articles of the Treaty of Washington. Representatives of the commercial interests of the Great Lakes districts contend that those provisions will have the effect, if ratified, of carrying into effect, to transfer to British owners the monopoly of the Lake tonnage trade and ownership of the Lake tonnage to British hands, inasmuch as British vessels can be built and sailed at from 30 to 40 per cent less cost in the present condition of our currency and specie.

Death is described out west by the circumlocution of testing one's theological views.

The Boston and Maine road has received permission to water its stock to the limited extent of $1,000,000.

The Quebec "Caroline" states that the earthquake of Tuesday night was felt severely at Rue St. Paul and St. Charles.

Indians are making money killing winter in the Western woods this winter. The bounty on deer is sufficient for a prolonged drink.

The Advertiser says that it is singular that Gough pays as much as any town in the Province for the education of his children, yet without exception hardly, it has the poorest public schools.

The Bylop and Ronald steamship, manufactured at Chatham, was tested the other day with an American engine made by Jones & Co. of Chatham. The Chatham machine was victorious.

The unfortunate man, Choker, who was accidentally shot on Christmas day at the pigeon match in London, died on Wednesday, after suffering severely from the painful nature of the wound.

Alick, the blacksmith, had a bulky mare last winter—a determined brawler. Some of the neighbors coming home one night saw Alick unloading in the stall, about half-an-hour from home. On being asked what he was doing, he said that the mare had balked, and he was going to take the cutter and harness from himself, and leave her to come when she got hungry.

The number of vessels owned in Philadelphia in 1871 was 2,640, in 1870 it was 2,400.

Mr. Johnson once uttered a notorious remark that was containing some of his friends for painting one also, by the remark that "it was far better to be a lady to her neighbor's character."

"Throw away your cigar, sir," said a porter to a man who was just entering one of the public houses in Washington with a freshly lit cigar in his mouth. "I don't like to have any smoke here," was the reply. "No smoking allowed," you will have to throw your cigar away." The demand was grudgingly complied with, and five minutes after, the man coming out, saw the porter complacently finishing the discarded Havana.

The Daily Ontario
WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN.
It is annoying to see the names of the "new" C.

Committee. It is always considered hasty in the Mayor to vote in Community. The late Mr. Benjamin, although respected as a Reeve of a Township, never served on a Committee. The last Mayor Holden, voted but once in Community during the year. Other Mr.
including the Honorable Mr. M. preceding Mr. Holden, never voted in the Committee during their incumbency.
The Speakers of the House of Representatives never vote in Community.
The instance above referred to Mayor had appointed the one Authority at the gentlemen desired him to the arena and appoint the second for by his vote. If the Mayor had not voted for Mr. Newberry, and against Lynch, it would have resulted in a draw. Neither Mr. Lynch nor Mr.
Newberry would have been elected, an object of the "instituting" gentlemen would not have been achieved.

Assembly after the Christmas holidays and the Blake Administration entered the work of the Session in real earnest. During the recess they have been considering the several provisions intended to differ in effect from those proposed by the late Government, and now the people anxiously to know the meaning of the new doctrine. The popular view of the people is unmistakably with the Government, and no opposition was offered to the return of those accepting office in the new Cabinet. It only remains now to see what wise course to be pursued toward carrying out the principles enunciated at the hustings, and a careful regard most unanimous support yet accorded any Government. For our part we have full confidence both in the ability and integrity of the gentlemen composing the Black Administration, and believe that our expectations of their policy will be in the least disappointed. The position here was from rampant suspicion and misadjustment of the House, and differences for all past intrigues here threatened, but more lately we are glad to note an indication of reconciliation on the part of some members. We conclude that they find it unnecessary to accept the inevitability of present circumstances, and will bide their time.

DRINKING A PUMP HANDLE.—This morning a Little Son of Mr. John Kook street, meet with an accident while playing with his boys in the park. The troops of Diaz are retiring to Puerto del Angel, where they stand to encounter Maximilian, with some prominent rebel officers.

The backbone of the revolution is broken. The Government is regaining strength, while the revolutionists are operating without concert, and are losing their strength. The revolutionary chiefs are quarrelling among themselves.

The Government Gen. Rosales is killed, and the revolutionary Gen. Rosales was wounded in the battle at San Mateo.

Fever is prevalent among the people; all diseases are opposing the people. Foreigners are convinced that in an American protestantism lies the only safety of Mexico.

An annexation paper, printed in Spanish and English, will soon be started at the Capital. The Government declines sending Ministers to the United States, Spain, Germany and Italy, on account of expense.

The study of the English language is becoming common among youths here. Juarez is using dictatorial powers with great moderation, with the exception of forced contributions and pressing men into the army.

Madrid, Jan. 18.

The Prince Minister Sagasta, and Ex-Royal Marshal Serrano are to have a conference to-day. Much importance is attached to their meeting. The Ministry have sent a circular to the Governors of the Provinces instructing them to suppress all organizations belonging to or in any way connected with the International Society, within their respective jurisdictions. While thus breaking up the systems dangerous to civil peace, they are directed not to interfere with the liberty of speech, and to take no notice of the simple enunciation of principles of the International Society, as laws of Spain provide no punishment for such utterances.

Quebec, Jan. 18.

Le Canadien appeared for the first time under its new management, to support Hon. Mr. Langevin in his contest with Hon. Mr. Coucchin, both of whom are endeavoring to step into Sir Geo. E. Cartier's place. Hon. Mr. Coucchin is using his influence as President of the North Shore Railroad for the same purpose, much to the discontent of other Directors, and the public, who, through the press, are now demanding that the affairs of the Company be made known. The resignation of Hon. Mr. Coucchin is loudly called for.

Miles of railroads in U.S., 104,988. Cost $2,900,000,000.

A railroad surveying party found in the mountains north of Yreka, Cal., a forest of wild plum trees, on which there were estimated to be 5,000 barrels of plums.

A lone bachelor at Frankfort, Kentucky, returns thanks through the paper to the unknown friends who placed two large plates of hash on his door-step a few nights ago.

A young man who has just left school, shows unusual wisdom by saying that though she corresponds with several gentlemen she always writes with a hard pencil, and never signs her name.

Capt. Sherard Osborne, of Chinese naval fame, has resigned the command of the British ship Hercules, much to the displeasure of the Lords of the Admiralty.

Mrs. Thackeray has been several years at work on a novel which will be called "Old Kensington," which will appear simultaneously in the Cornhill Magazine and Harper's Magazine.

Mrs. Thackeray, wife of the British Minister, was the only lady dressed in silk, and, with the exception of the three combined, at the recent grand Executive reception in Washington, and was voted "awfully plain" by the gorgeous dames of our American court.

President Thackeray is introducing Republican simplicity to far as invitations to dinner are concerned. His card reads: "The President of the French Republic and Madame Thackeray pray that M. will do them the honor of coming to dinner on Saturday at the Presidency."

John C. Heenan has returned to America, and is in haste to take vengeance on the newspapers who accused him of complicity with the voucher tickets. John is getting particular in his old age. He is going to make a man's eyes out of the ring or keep a man out of the most moral kind, and to associate with the Tammany King—no never.

At Las Vegas, the St. Catharines "Times" says the work on the improvement in Port Colborne harbor is to be commenced at once, the contractors, Messrs. Geo. Nelson & Co. having arrived, and have advertised for the necessary supply of timber, lumber, &c., required on the work. This effectively settles the question as to whether will be the southern entrance of the Welland Canal—Port Colborne or Port Maitland. The work is to be pushed forward with all possible despatch, and it is probable that the improvements will all be completed before the end of 1873.

Chiefdom is a pain on for one half the life of humanity. It keeps digestion perfect, while it saves the brain from softening and the heart from hardening. To be sure, there are some brains that can't be made more tender; but after all, Pinar was not far from right when he said: "Care to our collar adds a nail, no doubt, and every grain so merry draws down a nail."

The story comes from France that a young man, strong minded lady, living in Bologna, sent a challenge to the publisher of a humorous journal, who had twice humiliated himself with her witty affairs.

A formal acceptance of the duel was returned, the choice of arms was waived, but decided preference for the use of the lady herself was expressed. Recognitions followed, and the wedding trip is to the United States.

The Daily Ontario

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 19, 1872.

We have read with considerable interest the speculative theory by somebody that "The Coming Race," the New Republic, is which the author in a very mannered, a strange, and perfect race inhabiting the arctic regions, and where they had acquired a complete mastery over all human faculties and passions solely through their knowledge of that wonderful power, "Vril." We do not intend to follow these speculations, nor draw conclusions, but simply to make a reference to a few passing events. Would it be consistent with this kind of philosophy to intimate that the Japanese will be "The Coming Race"? They have sent an Embassy to the United States, and the Chief has declared in a speech at San Francisco that his people are desirous of cultivating friendship with the other barbarians, or "Tishas." But there are one or two features in their delirious vision which we fear some of our readers will severely censure to a superior people. We don't think the "Vril" can find the highest type of civil "Tishas" in the United States, and military ones in France. They have chosen these two nations for testing the above two essentials.

We mentioned yesterday that there was a rumor to the effect that the Dominion Premier, Sir John A. Macdonald, would visit Toronto, and give his assistance to the leaders of the Opposition in their desperate efforts to swamp the Blake Administration, at the earliest opportunity possible, and regain their lost seats. At the time we felt inclined to doubt the truth of this report, not being willing to credit such interference on the part of the Ottawa authorities, but from what we observe in the Citizen of yesterday, there appears no doubt but that a shameless attempt will be made to use the influence in their power in order to crush out the Reform Government. The Citizen says:—

"Sir John Macdonald did not proceed west to-day, as it was rumored he would do, but we understand that during the coming week he will pay a flying visit to Kingston, and may, on that occasion, go farther west. Sir Francis Hincks and Hon. Alexander Morris will visit Hamilton next week on official business."

This is quite explicit enough. Sir John will go to Kingston, where, no doubt, a wonderful resurrection of political antecedents will take place, and Mr. Robinson receive a final excommunication of the old borough. He will then proceed farther west, and we know how far that will be. The Saint of Cornwall and his dog-like followers need inspiration from his authoritative presence, and also instruction from his practiced hand. We dislike entering into further speculations as to the result of this conference of Tory politicians; but of this we may be assured, nothing will be left untold that can be possibly made available in securing the object of their seeking.

BEREAVING YOUNG PEOPLE.—When John Wesley saw a young man in danger of falling into the snare of evil associates, he did not wait him slowly at a distance and speak of his lost coming to him, but he predicted that he was on the "high road to ruin." He invited him to his table, and by a gentle, affable manner, sought to give good subjects for thought, or hints for conduct. Advice thus hospitably enforced was very impressive. He would draw out a young man in conversation, and learn what studies he was most proficient in, which were most essential to his success, and then assist him to acquire mastery over them. Another most valuable way of aiding young men whom social danger threatened was to make them acquainted with well disposed religious young men, who would lead them into good paths. He watched over their future career with a father's interest and tenderness, and in a very simple manner accomplished a large amount of good, and besides preventing a great work of evil.

In a French court, recently, as a witness was about to give his testimony, the advocate remarked: "It is worth remark to the court that this witness is entitled to entire confidence, as he has not had time to consult his lawyer."

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

TO-NIGHT.—There will be a Social in Mr. With's Church, and a most cordial invitation is extended to all. They are always made highly interesting.

ANOTHER RELEASE.—The Winds says that nearly all the Prisoners have been pardoned out of the Penitentiary in accordance with the resolve of the Board of Prison Commissioners. James Burke, of Tompkins, was discharged on Tuesday, and on Wednesday left for his home, from which he has been so long separated, by his own folly.

THE WORLD'S TRI-MESTRIAL.—The members of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Madoc, intend having a musical Tea-meeting on the 24th inst., to be held in the Masonic Hall. A number of good speeches are promised, which will with good music and good cheer generally will make an interesting time.

EXTENSIVENESS.—This is the way the editor of the Brantford Courier gets off an extensive "person," while speaking of a "other day." He looked through our extensive establishment; he expressed his pleasure at seeing an extensive establishment; and congratulated us upon our efforts in establishing so extensive a business.

DEATH.—The man Sherry, mentioned in the Ontario yesterday as having fatally injured by frozen snow that falling on him, died shortly after our Reporter left him. We should have mentioned that Dr. Lister and Hope were in attendance, and that all hope could be saved his life, but upon an examination of his injuries, pronounced them fatal.

COMMENDABLE.—We read it stated that Mr. Robt. Gladstone, a member of the English Premier, and a member of the House of Commons, has been elected to the office of Lord of the Admiralty. He has been elected to the office of Lord of the Admiralty. He has been elected to the office of Lord of the Admiralty.

DISTRIBUTION.—Lord Walter Campbell, a younger son of the Duke of Argyll, and brother of the Marquis of Lorne, is shortly to visit the Capital, it is said, and will be the guest of the Governor General.

ALMOST DESTRUCTION.—The express train from Annapolis, with over one hundred passengers, had a marvellous escape from destruction, when the way from Grand River to Wolfville. A passenger train from Wolfville, was a wheel off, and immediately gave the alarm. By his promptitude, and with the assistance of the conductor, the train was brought up just before reaching the bridge. A fearful accident was thus avoided. Had the train gone on the bridge, it would have been a disaster. No blame can be attributed to anyone until the matter is investigated. The passengers on the cars immediately offered a subscription for the brakeman, and a handsome sum was presented him.

Police Court.

ASSAULT.
Judgment was given against those parties who failed to appear to answer the charges preferred by J. W. Vannevar for assault.
Bernard Roddy and O'Brien fined $5 and costs, or 30 days.
Michael Roddy fined $20 or 30 days.
James Webb fined $20 or 10 days.

Y. M. C. A. Anniversary and Conversation.

The Convention last night was a decided success. A very large audience was present, and a very hearty reception that greeted the efforts of the ladies and gentlemen to entertain them must have been very gratifying to the members of the Association, and stimulating them to the further exertion of that zeal which has so conspicuously characterized them within the last few months. Their success in this entertainment in providing such a varied and so acceptable a programme, and the very marked approbation of their patrons, should induce them to repeat it during the remainder of the season. In connection with the "Lecture Course" that is to be inaugurated next week by the Rev. T. B. Cartwright. There is a sample field for the presentation of both in our Town. Conversations are very fitting and pleasing preludes to the more elaborate and instructive productions of the Lecturer.

There is scarcely room for a doubt as to their success in a pecuniary way; the difficulties in obtaining the necessary talent to merit the patronage of the Association, and the very great, and may appear insurmountable if left untended, but if undertaken they will vanish, as there is in our Town abundance of talent, which only waits encouragement for its development, and would, if brought out, receive hearty recognition from the discerning public, that are always ready to respond to any demands that are made upon them of a literary and musical character.

To go through the programme and point out its merits would be gratuitous to those who were present; to those who were not there, our skill is totally inadequate to convey to them a notion of the loss in not hearing the claims of this Association to their encouragement and support as presented by the Revs. Messrs. Bland, Smith and Dr. Wild, whose thoughts were most happily conveyed, powerfully conveyed, and heartily received. We have never seen an audience on occasions like this in such thorough sympathy with the speakers, and so absolutely under their control. Those speeches were never excelled on any platform in our Town. Many of the thoughts expressed were "not art, but inspiration;" impressions stamped by them will give to the currency of "Intellectual development" treasures that will be stored during time's changes, enriching the heart with noble aspirations.

The opening devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Lewis. The Annual Report was read by the Secretary, Mr. William Johnston. We expected to give a synopsis of this report, but have not been fortunate enough to procure a copy—it will appear in a contemporary. The Mayor read two selections from the Poems of Eliza Cook and Thos. Campbell in a very masterly style, and with marked effect.

The musical part of the programme was under the able management of Dr. Palmer, and was as usual very creditable to his judgment in selections adding another to the many obligations the public as well as the beneficiary are under to him for his readiness to respond to their numerous demands.

Miss L. Ross and Mrs. Diamond were in excellent voice and their songs were admirably rendered.

Mr. Whish, the Organist of St. Thomas Church, is a great acquisition to the musical fraternity, and added to the many friends that he has already won since his coming to this city.

The Rev. Mr. T. Willis, of the Toronto Association, gave an interesting account of the good work being done by that Society, which was listened to with much interest, and elicited frequent applause.

The Chair was ably filled by A. G. Northrup, Esq., who, at the close, complimented the Association upon the success that had attended their efforts in this direction, and especially referred to the assistance rendered by the ladies, and finally offering their services to speak and sing, particularly mentioning those of Dr. Palmer. He returned thanks on behalf of the Association, and the entertainment closed by the Ven. Archdeacon Patton pronouncing the benediction.

Speaking of that composer who compiled 400 legitimate English words from the letters forming the words Prince Alexis, the London Standard says he ought to print them in a book, and call it Alexicon.

A Journalist, Wisconsin, paper says the girls of that town "sleep with their corsets on." When those Wisconsin girls take a notion to be squeezed, they are going to be, even if they have to have it done by machinery.—London Standard.

CHICAGO.—The City Council have been discussing the certain reforms, chief among which are the "Fire Limits," and the opposition among the poorer classes has become intensified to such a degree that a mob was the consequence of the evening. The Council was in session, and after parading the city the mob forced its way into the Chamber, broke down the door, and smashed the windows with bricks. A number were severely injured. Order prevailed after complete exhaustion.

A LITTLE TOO MUCH.—Senator Scott, of Pennsylvania, has presented a resolution praying that the Constitution be so amended that no person shall be eligible for office who indulges in intoxicating drinks. This was carrying the war a little too far, and the members exploded with merriment over the motion, declaring that if adopted it would have the effect of making them all ineligible for office, and Gen. Grant would not dare himself for reelection. It has been laid on the table, but will the time ever come when such a motion can be entertained by our legislative bodies? We leave the question with our Temperance organizations.

FOR CHICAGO.—Mr. W. H. Garratt, of the "Wardrobe," to-day shipped to Chicago a large box of clothing, which has been contributed by different parties in response to the request made some time ago. Mr. Garratt informed us that it was his intention to send it to the address of some Canadian Association, or National Society, in accordance with the wish formerly expressed, and which was made public through our columns. He therefore selected as the most proper recipient, N. Loverin, M. D., President of the Dominion Benevolent Association of Chicago, to whom the box has been sent. Mr. Garratt deserves much credit for his benevolent efforts in this direction.

EXCITEMENT ABOUT THE SILVER MINES.—The most wonderful reports are circulated of the richness of the silver and lead mines, upon the northern shore of Lake Superior. At the Silver Island mine enormous quantities of ore are taken out every day, the amount being limited only by the force employed. The quantity of silver seems inexhaustible, and it is believed that several millions dollars' worth will be taken out this winter. Several other mines are doing very well. The number of laborers employed in and about the mines is about four hundred. The silver-bearing quartz has also been found in the neighborhood. The excitement is great. The total population in the vicinity of the mines is about 8,000, but it is believed that before many years the people of the region will number 100,000.

MANITOBA.—Mr. Hay opened the debate in the Legislature yesterday by moving the following amendment to the address from the Throne:—"We regret that your Excellency has not recommended any measures to the House whereby the half-breed claims could be at once settled; and also whereby the control of the public lands of the Province could be secured; nor any measure by which it is intended to deal with the Indian population of the country with regard to the franchise." The mover supported the amendment by a speech, in which he strongly urged the desirability of Manitoba obtaining control of its public lands. The Government opposed the amendment, and were supported by a vote of 17 to 5. Dr. Bird then moved that the amendment to the address be not recorded on the Journals of the House, which was carried by a majority of two.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

RECORD PARLIAMENTARY FIRST SESSION.

Toronto, Jan. 19.

The House met yesterday. All the members present excepting Ithamar and Hamilton. Baskins could not take his seat as the Returning Officer had not sent in the returns.

M. C. CAMERON asked the Government if they intended making explanations regarding the introduction into the Ministry of Mr. Root.

Hon. Mr. BLAKE replied that the Government had already explained the general policy of the Government, and was always ready to reply to any questions of the Opposition.

Mr. SCOTT said that in the absence of Hon. Jno. S. Macdonald he should reform his reserve until to-morrow, when that gentleman was expected to be present. On motion of Mr. Blake the House adjourned.

Mark Twain's Enigma.

I am composed of sixteen or seventeen letters.
My 10, 14, 3, 4, 6, 9, 15, is something or other in a general way.
My 2, 11, 7, 16, is something else.
My 9, 6, 4, 10, 16, 11, is the other thing.
My 6, 10, 8, 14, 3, 2, 1, 11, is most anything.
My 5, 2, 9, 14, 7, 2, 1, 11, 6, 10, 2, 13, is most anything else.
My 4, 2, 10, 9, is a good deal like some of the things referred to above, though in what respect it has baffled even me to determine.
My 9, 3, 8, 12, is—well, I suppose it, but I can't see why.

Now, if anybody can cipher out that enigma he is an abler man than I am, notwithstanding I got it up myself. It would be a real favor if some one would try it, however. I have figured at it, and worked at it, and I can make neither head nor tail of it. I thought it was rather neat at first, but I do not like it so well now that I can't find out the answer to it. It looks rather easy at a first glance, but you will notice that the farther you get into it, the more it widens out.

This is my first attempt in the enigma line, and to speak the plain truth, I am considerably stunned at my own success. I do not seem to have just got the hang of this sort of thing; but I offer the enigma to your readers for what it is worth; it may serve to amuse an idle day—and it cannot do much harm—it cannot do more than drive a man mad and make him massacre his relations.

The Australian gold fields still offer inviting prospects to investors. The Melbourne Argus of Nov. 6 says that it would appear from the discoveries of new auriferous ground which are made from time to time in Victoria that nearly the whole country is auriferous, and that gold will be extracted from it for all time to come. Only recently a payable gold field was found at Stockyard Creek, near Port Albert, in the most southern portion of the colony, far from the region of what had hitherto been termed gold country, and now reports come to us of the discovery of gold quartz reefs in the south-western portion of Victoria, at some distance beyond the existing western gold fields. The locality of the new field is in the vicinity of the Grampian and Victoria ranges, about 48 miles west of Ararat, and 46 north of Hamilton. Some stone which was struck within three feet of the surface has been analyzed, and found to contain gold at the rate of an ounce to the ton. What is considered to be the main reef has been struck at a depth of eight feet, since the ledge was found, and it is stated to be much richer than the stone tried from the leader. There has been a great rush to the scene of this new discovery.

Why are bad boys like newly cleared land? Both require occasional sproutings.

A politician speaking of his party says, "We would all hang together." The hangman should be careful, in that case, to heed the noise carefully, so that there will be no "falling out" of any of the members of the party.

During the performance of a tragedy to a crowded house, the galleries gave way, and precipitated their occupants into the pit. (The play went on as if nothing had happened.) "Bring down the house" in that style, and come it to a shied tier.

All the bulls are generally palmed off upon the Irish. But the best speakers and writers are sometimes guilty of blunders that would do credit to a genuine son of the Emerald Isle. Edward Everett once said: "Think of the mighty rivers running up and down the country in every direction. Not long since a dyspeptic was beguiled by an advertisement to send to New York individual a dollar, for which sum a cure for dyspepsia was promised. He received a printed slip with these words: 'Stop drinking and hoe in the garden.' The man was angry at first, then laughed, and finally stopped drinking and 'hoed in the garden.' In a short time he was as well as ever.

RAPID STEAMING.—The new steamer Sarumation, Captain James Wylie, one of the latest additions to the magnificent fleet of the "Allen" Company, has made the fastest run from Portland to Derry and Liverpool on record. She sailed from Portland, Maine, at 2 a.m. on Sunday the 26th Dec., arriving at Londonderry at 8 a.m. on the 26th, and at Liverpool at 9 p.m. the same day. Making allowance for difference of time, the Sarumation, thus completed the run in eight days to Londonderry, and eight days thirteen hours to Liverpool.—Monmouth Witness.

DESTRUCTION OF HOUSE, BARN, &c.
(Via Dominion Lines.)

Kempville, Jan. 19.

A serious fire took place last night in the township of Marlborough, about six miles from Kempville, when the frame house, barn and other buildings, of Mr. George Powell, together with seventy-five bushels of wheat, 200 bushels of oats and a quantity of other grain, hay and straw, and is fact everything on the place, with the exception of the live stock, was completely destroyed by the devouring element. Mr. Powell was from home at the time, but everything possible was done by the neighbors to extinguish the conflagration, but without avail. They succeeded, however, in saving the live stock. The loss is not known, but will be somewhere between 2,000 and 3,000 dollars. Lightly insured.

If men are "known by their fruits," we should not object to make the acquaintance of a number of gentlemen resident in the famous "fruit belt" of Michigan.

A gentleman called on a rich miser, and found him at the table endeavoring to catch a fly. Presently he succeeded in entrapping one, which he immediately put into the sugar-bowl, and shut down the cover. The gentleman asked for an explanation of this singular sport. "I'll tell you," replied the miser, a triumphant grin over-appearing his countenance as he spoke: "I want to ascertain if the servants steal the sugar."

The Daily Ontario
SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 20, 1872
They have a Society in New York
which endeavor to carry out the letter of the declaration of principles announced in the following lines:

Extreme Opposition
Since the Patent Combination was routed and a Reform Administration established in its stead, the Conservative press of the Province, led by the Toronto Telegraph, have never ceased their efforts to invent an excuse for condemnation.

The latest and most important grievance that has been discovered, out of which to manufacture capital for abuse,
has just now come to an issue, and promises
some rare Parliamentary explanations.

There are a number of settlers in the township of Proton, South Grey, who occupy Crown Lands, and their circumstances are such as to render it impossible for many of them to pay the indebtedness standing against them for lands and interests.

still stronger coloring to the picture
drawn, the Telegraph brought forward a series of affidavits, sworn to by residents of the town, and reiterating the accusements against Messrs. Blake and McKillop. If we had not other sources of information than the columns of the Telegraph, and if we were compelled to pin our faith to the peculiar color of official information promulgated through that journal, we should certainly form an unfavorable opinion of the honesty of the prosecution of the members of the trial of Government. But fortunately the trial is not permitted to go by default, and the Globe of yesterday completely exposed the deceit and wilful perjury adopted by the Opposition, in the following sentence which we take from a lengthy article on the subject:

Mr. Lewis never saw Mr. Blake for months before the late election, had no communication with him then, and neither from the Premier nor any member of the Government received any authority, instruction or information that could be tortured into a threat or bribe.
It is to be regretted that such distinguished tactics will be resorted to for the mere purpose of enjoying a monumental triumph of political slander. The authors of these charges must certainly have known that the deceit under which they assayed to malign the leaders of the Government would ultimately be exposed,
and leave them in a less enviable position than when they began.

Loon and General.
NEW INSTRUMENTS.—Prof. Armstrong
today received direct from England two beautiful musical instruments, with which to enhance his stock and accommodate customers.
SERIOUS LOSS.—We regret to learn that Mr. Samuel Wood, of Thurlow front, yesterday had the misfortune to lose four valuable horses from eating pea-straw.
This circumstance is certainly unusual,
and deserving of careful consideration.

NOT THE MAN.—The Oswego Advertiser
and Times refers to our request to know whether the Murry, convicted in that City
for murder at Sand Bank, is the same man
by that name who committed a late crime near this place a few years since, by stating that "he is not."
MR. CARTWRIGHT'S LECTURE.—We direct attention to the communication found elsewhere from "J. J." relative to the lecture
there given. The gentleman who writes
this is well able to form an unprejudiced opinion, and has kindly offered the same for the benefit of the Association.

A NEW DOCTOR.—Unfortunately doctors, unable to procure the necessary "poultice"
to meet existing claims against them, have adopted a new dodge which is said to answer the desired purpose of keeping away importuning patients to a charming put up a sign which reads "Small-Pox,"
and everybody keeps a respectful distance.

THE PRISONERS PIERCE, DUMPROPS and Potts, arrested for stealing recently, were tried today. Pierce was acquitted and made a Queen's evidence against the other two. Dumprops was found guilty and sentenced to one month's imprisonment at hard labor, and Potts to two months.

WE DIRECT special attention to our dispatches from Toronto, under the political situation, and astounding revelations.
What has become of the Telegraph's charges against Hon. Mr. Scott, and the wholesale corruption in which this gentleman was alleged to be involved? What about "per-fidious Blake" and his high-handed bribe
in connection with members of the House?
What explanation can be given to the conduct of Hon. gentlemen, who were formerly staunch friends of the late Administration, by their declared intentions of supporting the new Government? Certainly the revelations thus far made are in no way damaging to the political characters of the men who now occupy the Treasury benches,
but rather tend to raise them in the estimation of the public of Ontario.

A SHARPER BIRD.—We mentioned a few days ago a smart canary bird which,
it was said, was in Ontario, but the following from the Whig is smarter: "This has been going the rounds of the papers just as if the accomplishments of this bird were beyond the ordinary. It is not a circumstance to a canary bird we have in Kingston.
This smart bird, which is said to be placarded, gets up in the morning and lights fire, does the family sewing, says
and splits the wood, does the marketing,
and knits two dozen pairs of socks last year.
It is a great reader also. It has without unfinishing energy waded through the Tie-burner Trial. Sometimes it has the extraordinary boldness to read the Leader. Once it tried to tackle the Telegraph, but it received such a shock that it shudders at the sight of that mortal paper ever since. If it gets its eye on the Ottawa paragraph, the editor of that sheet may expect to have a letter from it shortly."

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH was lighted last night with two "Double Cone Reflectors."
These reflectors are 70 inches in diameter
and have 36 jets of gas each, permanently
fixed in the ceiling, and are scientifically constructed with corrugated glass to diffuse the light. They were found that could be placed, the light being thrown over every part of the church in mild radiance, and with entire absence of flashes or unevenly
glare, enabling old eyes to con the lessons of the evening or to join in the Psalms
with the same ease by night as by day.
This church is fast approaching completion,
and is to be supplied with a superb Organ
of equal capacity to any outside of the metropolitan cities. We heartily congratulate the congregation of the church on their successful completion of their edifice, and its perfect adaptation to all their requirements. Its faultless symmetry and architectural beauty make it an ornament to our Town, and a source of pride to our people.
We hope the spirit of liberality and enterprise so judiciously exhibited will continue to fructify, that they will realize a full measure of prosperity and growth.

Alarm of Fire.
A few minutes before 7 o'clock this morning, as Messrs. Moorman and Sheverson were driving down the street, a strong smell of fire. Failing to observe any smoke they passed on. On returning a few minutes they saw smoke issuing from the cellar windows of the store occupied by R. Elliot.
Finding no means of ingress the police were sent for. Policemen McCoy and Rutten being on duty were promptly on the spot;
butting open the cellar door they found
the smoke to proceed from the much too
common extemporized ash house—a Dry Goods box, that had been smouldering through the night. Had it broken out two hours sooner in all probability the building would have been burned and a large destruction of goods, which would have been a small matter compared with the increased feeling of insecurity which already prevails the community, owing to the numerous incendiary fires that have occurred of late, as there is no doubt that had the building burned it would have been added to the list. Such culpable negligence merits the severest reprobation. Economy is no doubt a virtue, but when it saves ashes in a Dry Goods box, surrounded with the inflammable wrappings in the basement of a Dry Goods Store, it takes the other extreme.

Landlords should exercise considerable caution in such cases, as there is generally
a clause in the Insurance Policy that protects the Companies and vitates the claim for loss. The community have claims to lose. The community have claims to lose.
though not laid "down in the bond," to an exercise of proper vigilance on the part of shopkeepers who have neither watchman
nor lodgers on the premises, that when their places are closed, there is no possibility of fire from such causes or from defective pipes and flues. It is very questionable whether it is proper to so tightly close basements that the extent and nature of fire could remain unseen till the bursting of the door.
Had the fire this morning been but little further advanced, the bursting of the door would have supplied the necessary air
for more perfect combustion, and in all probability the building would have been gutted before the fire department could have been on the spot with their appliances. It was most fortunate that the discovery was made and the fire extinguished without any loss, as the loss of one of those blocks would be incalculable, even if the loss could be confined to the one in which it originated,
as it is the centre of our Dry Goods trade.

A bouquet made of grasshoppers strung on wires took a prominent part in a county fair at Meadville. Where is the Society for the prevention of cruelty?
HON. ELIAS A. CONVERSE, who was largely engaged in woolen manufacture,
and has served in both branches of the Connecticut Legislature, died in Stafford on the 19th inst., at the age of sixty-six years. One of his daughters is the wife of Hon. JAMES L. SENOZ.

of Canada.
The Rev. T. S. Cartwright's Lecture.

Sir:—I understand that the Rev. T. S.
Cartwright, Church of England minister at Ancaster, is to lecture on "Luther and the Reformation," on Thursday next, in connection with the Young Men's Christian Association. I had the pleasure of hearing this noble lecture in Kingston a short time since, and can strongly recommend the work of your readers who appreciate cultivated oration not to lose this opportunity of hearing Mr. Cartwright, whose fame is spreading all over the country. The subject is a most interesting one, and the manner of its treatment is suitable to these days of apu-rities and abuses with gems of thought and rhetoric. The lecturer is a man of broad views, a true Christian, and his sentiments are such as, in my estimation, will be endorsed by all liberal minded Protestants.
It is to be hoped, therefore, that Ontario
Hall will be crowded on the occasion of Mr.
Cartwright's first appearance in Belleville.

Dominion Board of Trade.
The discussions on Thursday opened about the Baie Verte Canal by Mr. Benton, on behalf of the St. John, N. B., Board of Trade. He concluded by moving the following resolution:
Resolved, That the Board look forward
with much interest to the report of the survey now in progress for the construction of the Baie Verte Canal, and look upon the undertaking as one of great importance to the Dominion, and they urge upon the Government the prosecution of the work, should the survey prove favorable, as soon as practicable.

After some discussion upon this by members interested, the motion was considerably modified and adopted.
The subject of Railways received a good share of the attention at the session that day. Mr. Howland, of Toronto, read a memorandum in support of the scheme for opening up a new line of railway from the West to the seaboard, prepared by Mr. R.
W. Elliot, of Toronto, and moved the following resolution:—
Resolved, That in view of the probable construction of the North Shore and Northern Colonization Railroad, it is desirable that a line be constructed to meet the west end of the Dominion Railway at the city of Toronto, and to extend thence to or near Ottawa, in this way a new trunk line from the West to the sea would be secured, which would not only greatly assist Canadian trade, but would also be connecting with the Great Western Railway of Canada give a new route by which United States products could reach our sea ports.
This elicited considerable discussion, several members expressing their opinions, pro
and con.

Hon. Mr. Read, of Belleville, spoke in favor of the road from Belleville to the Georgian Bay. The reported road had already cost $350,000 in bonuses, $225,000 stock subscribed, and have $5,000 permits towards construction. He did not feel at all envious of any particular portion of Canada. The present may be justly called a railway age.
When we look back at the past and see the progress they have made, we may well look forward in anticipation of seeing railways constructed in every part of the country. A railway from Georgian Bay to any point on the River St. Lawrence will secure business.

Mr. Howland wished the Belleville scheme
God-speed. He referred to the advantage now possessed of raising money in the local sections towards building railroads, instead of following the practice of former years of going to England to negotiate loans, or receiving aid.
Hon. Mr. Read hoped that the views of the Toronto men would enable them to support the Grand Junction Railway from Belleville to Georgian Bay.
Mr. Howland's resolution was then put and carried.
There is a man now living in Ohio whose father was born 165 years ago.
Citizens of New Orleans say the summer
just closed has been the most tedious ever experienced there, the heat being prolonged and unprecedented. The health of the city has been good, notwithstanding.
The factory owners at Lowell, Mass., who are now altered forty-five minutes for dinner, are to have an hour after the first of October, and their working day will be but ten hours and three quarters long.
JAMES W. MARSHALL, the discoverer of gold in California, is on his way East to tell what he knows about mining. The San Francisco Bulletin says he is an honest, simple-hearted old man, who tells the story of his adventures life charmingly.

SECOND PARLIAMENT—FIRST SESSION.
Toronto, Jan. 20.
On the opening of the House yesterday
Mr. Scott proceeded to reply to the questions made against him. He emphatically denied that he was or had been a paid agent of the lumber interest. He also declined with equal emphasis that he ever received from any indirectly received one of the principle of the lumber interest.
He was not even a professional adviser of any single man engaged in the lumber trade. He also denied having ever made one farthing out of private bill legislation; on the contrary he had last season
paid the expenses of two private bills out of his own pocket. He denies further that he had any pecuniary interest in the Canadian Central Railway.
Mr. M. C. CAMERON regretted that there were grounds for the belief that Mr.
Scott had forsaken the principles of the Conservative party. He argued that the present Government was in all respects
the same as the last, namely, a Coalition.
After recess Mr. Cameron resumed his speech, and quoted from the speeches of several members of the Government to show that they had been opposed to a Coalition.
He charged them with inconsistency in settling in the same Cabinet with Scott.
Hon. Mr. BLAKE said that Mr. Cameron had stated in effect that he (Blake)
had made a corrupt bargain with Mr. Wood in bribing the latter with a promise of office, and that he (Cameron) would produce proof. He then challenged Mr. Cameron to produce proof.
Mr. CAMERON said he had not stated that he would produce proof, but he challenged Mr. Blake to deny the fact.
Mr. BLAKE said he denied it most emphatically.
Mr. CAMERON then said he would ask for a Com. of Enquiry.
Mr. COYNE said that it was strange if the late Government believed Mr. Scott to be an agent of the lumbermen, that they should have elected him as Speaker.
He did not care under what name this Government was known, but he contended that the late Government was not honest, he (Coyne) would support the Government.
(Ministerial Cheers.)
Mr. Wood denied emphatically that there had been any influence brought to bear on him to procure his resignation. He never told anyone he was going to resign, except the member for Lincoln, Mr. Rykert. He proclaimed that he had always been a Reformer, and repudiated the idea that Mr.
Cameron was his leader, or had a right to speak for him. He urged the necessity for a large representation of Reformers in the Dominion Parliament, in view of the fact that the fundamental basis of the constitution had been changed in the mode of apportioning representatives for Manitoba and British Columbia. He pointed out the unfairness to Ontario of the mode adopted in arranging representatives to the new Provinces, and showed how Ontario would suffer financially by the construction of the Intercolonial Railway. He would give the New Government a fair support, but never asked them for anything, and would not ask them. He finished by declaring that history would do justice to John Sandfield Macdonald as one of the best Premiers that ever held authority in Ontario.
After a few words from Mr. Clark, of Norfolk, the House adjourned at eleven o'clock.

West Hastings Agricultural Society.
The West Hastings Agricultural Society
held their Annual Meeting in the Town Hall to-day. A very fair attendance of members were present.
The Secretary and Treasurer's report
were read and adopted.
The following officers were elected:
President, McKenna Bowell, M. P., 1st
Vice-President, Daniel Vandewater, 2nd Vice-President, David Robin, Secretary, D. R. Ketcheson, Treasurer, W.

Yates, Dr. Coleman.
BELLEVILLE—James Macoun, Samuel Farley.

West Hastings Agricultural Society.
The Annual Agricultural meeting for the East Riding of Hastings took place at Roslin on Friday the 19th inst.
The following are the officers elected for the ensuing year:—
Jas. Hunter, President, Wm. Dooley, 1st
Vice-President, John Wilson, 2nd Vice-President, Wm. Watson, Treasurer, P. R.
Palmer, Secretary.
DIRECTORS.
THURLOW—Geo. Phillips, Esq., Robt.
Garbutt, Esq., Jas. Farney, Esq.
HUNTERFORD—Henry Hulet and two others.
TRENDRAUGH—John McLaren, Esq., A.
R. Robin, Esq., and one other.
AUDITORS.
P. G. Duncan, Alfred Farrelly.
It was moved by Geo. Phillips, seconded by J. J. Farley, that it is not advisable to hold a Union Show during the coming year,
and after considerable discussion the motion was carried.
Messrs. Daly and McCready contended that the past Show had not come up to the reasonable expectations of the Society, and advocated the using of a portion of the money for the importation of blood stock.
The Roman Catholic priest of Boston
have united in a petition to the Aldermen that the streets in the vicinity of all the Churches of the city be paved with wood.

Fine Writing.
It is not often we alight upon anything more astonishingly grandiose than the following, which is from an editorial that appeared yesterday in a Conservative organ published in this city. The article, it should be explained, is entitled "Isabola,"
and affects to be a warning to the members of the new Government to beware of their coming fate at the hands of the Globe.
"The still small voice whispering in history accounts seems to anticipate their fate,
and the lessons of destruction with annihilation of prescription already rumble in their distance. Soon the terrible volcano will vomit forth its lava of fury, and the Globe, dissolved in liquid fire, will be scattered to the four winds of heaven. In less than a minute that the aid of the rescue will be required to detect the organisms that once existed as human beings."
We have heard some Fourth of July orations that nearly came up to this but not quite. It is not given to man to hang in one's century to achieve anything equal to it.—Globe.

Birth.
On the 19th inst., the wife of R. P. Davy, Esq., of a son.

men more competent than they were, and he was satisfied that there would be no objection to their additional salaries. But he thought they would be well paid if he had the same pay as the others. He would therefore move in amendment, seconded by Mr. Eves, that the sum of $100 be added to the salary of the Treasurer, and that the same be added to that of the Clerk.

The Warden deprecated such proceedings. In justice to both of the gentlemen he treated that they would give the whole amount proposed, and not do it out in such a half-way manner. It was a mistake, an anomaly to be unjust to faithful officers, as the same would be given to the members of the Council, and he thought it was not fair to the Council and its justice.

Mr. Ashby said that as a young member of the Council he did not exercise his judgment and express his opinions on any subject just as he felt, but that he would rather wait until he had more experience, and then he would express his opinion. He was not a young man, but he was a young member of the Council, and he would wait until he had more experience, and then he would express his opinion.

Mr. Wood in reply claimed that Mr. Ashby had misapprehended his remarks, and that he had no intention of the slightest desire to interfere with the freedom of any one in the exercise of his judgment or in the expression of his opinions.

The final result before the Committee was that the young men are to form a committee on the economy and to have reports on their own judgment, but they must admit that a number of years experience in this Council must enable them to form a more correct judgment and to carry with it some weight. He hoped the members would support the original motion, which he then put, and declared—Carried.

Committee rose and adjourned. Report received. On motion to adopt the year and a year were called on the clause for advance of salaries by Mr. McKen. Years—Nathan, Vanhook, John, Graham, Allen, Gordon, Parley, Wilson, Kavanagh, George, Walker, Flint, McDougall, Frazier, Aylsworth and Anderson. Years—Ashley, Langham, Grass, Ross, Armstrong, Eves, McKen, Glass and Robinson. Council adjourned to meet on Tuesday in March.

New Time Table.
The following is the new time table for the arrival and departure of passenger trains on the Grand Trunk Railway, commencing on the 1st of January, 1872.

The Daily Ontario.
THURSDAY EVENING, JAN. 25, 1872.
The Market Building.

From what has transpired in the Council it is evident that the Market Committee proposes cutting down the Plans, as prepared by Mr. Evans, for the new Town Hall and Market Building. Having seen and examined these Plans we consider the proposal of the Committee to do away with the Market Building, and bring the Butcher's Market so as to adjoin the Town Hall building, will very materially derogate from its appearance.

It seems a pity for the sake of a paltry $2,000, to spoil what would be a good, substantial, and we may also add, beautiful building, worthy of the Town to which it belongs, by putting the Butcher's Market and its attendant nuisances close under the windows of the Town Hall.

Economy is all very well, but, paradoxically, it is to be deprecated, especially when applied to a work which is to stand for, and to be used by many generations to come. A little more public spirit is required we think in Belleville; it is rather too slow for the times.

A great argument against putting up the building, as present arranged, in the town is that it will lay on the taxpayers. But, as this is a work which is for the benefit of the future, quite as much as for the present, should we not be right in not caring more of its cost upon future? It is not fair that the whole burden of a permanent improvement should be borne by the present taxpayers; rather let loans be made, payable by yearly instalments. This would obviate the above mentioned objection.

We make these remarks without fully approving the change the Committee proposed; but we should very much regret to see the Plans carried without very substantial consideration.

Mr. Eves said to one of his debaters, "Isn't it about time you paid me that little bill?" "My dear sir," was the consoling reply, "it is not a question of time. It is a question of money."

Local and General.
THANKS. We have to thank Messrs. Cery and Graham, M. P. P., for Parliamentary papers and documents.

TO NURSE. Once more for the last time we call upon our readers to rally at the Lecture on Ontario Hall this evening in aid of the Y. M. C. A.

FRONTIER. Mr. Schleyer Shibley was elected unanimously elected Warden of the County of Frontenac at the first meeting of the Council on Tuesday.

ENTERPRISE. Mr. D. McInnis, of Hamilton, proposes to erect an extensive Cotton Factory at Cornwall, and negotiations are going on between himself and the Town Council to that end.

YAT RAY. VICE-GER. KIRBY.—The Y. M. C. A. of yesterday says:—It is with deep regret we have to inform our readers that the Y. M. C. A. Vice-General Kirby is still in a dying condition. No hopes of his recovery can be entertained.

GEN. MAD.—The St. Catharines Times says when his articles are copied without credit it does not much ruffle his well-known even temper, but when he sees his neighbor get credit for what originated in his brain, his kindly feelings refuse to be perfectly calm. Exchanges will please note this.

DOMINION TELEGRAPH LINE.—The Belleville Office of this Company is now under the management of W. C. Nunn, Esq., who, in addition of his other business, has also assumed this responsibility. The Dominion Line has now over 100 offices open in Canada, with connections to all parts of the United States, and their business is rapidly increasing.

THE FIRE COMPANIES were very grateful to Mr. Nathan Jones, for warm tea and coffee this morning, prepared for them after the arduous labors attending the late fire. They are nearly all Good Templars, and the beverage they received became doubly welcome—mitigating the effects of the cold, and the temptation to take intoxicating liquors. Will other good ladies in Town follow the example of Mrs. Jones?

"BELLEVILLE THIEVES."—One little contemporary Thieves' Gazette, really gets excited over our "gals" about the Belleville thieves, referred to in a previous number of that paper, and indulges in any amount of vile nonsense. He says we honestly express our sentiments, by saying that all our thieves come from Picton, as "the three Besses" are from this vicinity. "What does he mean? We have only two 'Besses,' so called, and but one of them claims to be a native of Prince Edward, the other being born and reared in Belleville, of which fact he is justly proud. With regard to our 'Hail Center Bess' being named to the Police Court, &c., we are proud to say that he denies the fact that he had been arrested on the charge referred to, as one of the most honest of his life, and for which he received the commendation of good citizens. No one connected with the Ontario have any fear of the Police Court or Mayors' Hotel—nor of a house-cleaning either.

Deafening.
Delightful winter weather, and good sleighing.
—Power & Co., of Kingston, are building a new propeller for Capt. Frank Patterson.

—Applications will be made this session of the Manitoba Parliament for bills to incorporate a post company, water works company, and a company to make beet root sugar.

Upper Canada Politics.
The Montreal Herald has the following under this head:—

We observe that in the Upper Canadian Assembly, on Monday night, a number of gentlemen gave in their adhesions to the Blake Government, at all events to the extent of promising to judge it fairly on its merits. This ought to indicate the folly of the merely personal attacks, which have for some time filled the columns of the ex-Ministerial press. They have fallen flat and useless, except to indicate the unscrupulous nature of their authors. By the way we notice the same kind of attack is now being made upon Mr. Birgin, apparently for the sole purpose of having him nominated as the opponent of Mr. John Sandfield MacDonald at the next election for Cornwall. This gentleman in one article is called "a gallant little militia buster; tipsy little Colonel; scurvy little hedge-hog Colonel; the varmint; and so on. We can hardly suppose that these choice names can have any effect with the electors, and if they even carried an election, they would not be less disgraceful to those who made use of them for that purpose.

The Murder of Thomas Scott.
Mr. BLAKE moves the resolution respecting the murder of Thomas Scott, of which he had given notice prior to the session, when he was on the other side of the House. He treated the discussion on this subject would be conducted with that spirit with which he had always endeavored to deal with it. It was of course regular to refer to the debate of last session, and for that he was not at all ashamed to refer to the course he had taken on this subject. The attempt had been made by those who thought it might not receive consideration from this House, to consider it as a religious question, and to suggest that it was a question which should be referred to the people and not to the House. He was sorry to hear that some of the members of the Opposition had taken this course, and he was sorry to hear that some of the members of the Opposition had taken this course, and he was sorry to hear that some of the members of the Opposition had taken this course.

It is plain that something should be done to shut end. If the House adopted this motion it would enable the Government to bring forward such measures for the action of the House as would be calculated to accomplish the latter part of the resolution. Mr. ROBINSON, in seconding the motion, said that the way in which this subject had been treated by the people of Canada was a long and a painful one. He was sorry to hear that some of the members of the Opposition had taken this course, and he was sorry to hear that some of the members of the Opposition had taken this course, and he was sorry to hear that some of the members of the Opposition had taken this course.

During the recent crisis Thiers said to Gen. Cissay that if Napoleon had left him in France he would be in power in fifteen days.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

FIRE AT CLINTON.

Clinton, Jan. 26.
At four o'clock this morning the Moulding department of the Clinton Foundry of Messrs. Glasgow, McPherson, & Co., of this place, was destroyed by fire. A quantity of patterns in the building were destroyed. A high wind was blowing, but the recent snow prevented the fire from spreading.

FIRE AT BLYTH.

Blyth, Ont., Jan. 26.
This morning about six o'clock, a fire broke out in the rear of the store occupied by Mr. T. G. Holmes, Blyth. The village was quickly on the spot, and succeeded in saving much of Mr. Holmes' goods, but as they were promiscuously thrown into the snow, they were of little value. No effort could save the building, there being no fire engine in the village. When the fire was discovered Mr. Holmes was sleeping over the store, and had barely time to escape by getting out of the window. His loss will be very heavy. He was insured in the Gore.

FROM OTTAWA.

Ottawa, Jan. 26.
The trial of Tranchemontagne is going on today. The case for the Crown closed yesterday. The case for the defence is now commencing.

Hon. Mr. Mitchell is unwell, though not confined to his bed.

Last night being the Anniversary of R. Burns was the occasion of a special entertainment in St. Patrick's Hall.

The Court of Appeal closed today.

FROM TORONTO.

Toronto, Jan. 26.
Hearthing, charged with embezzlement in City Chamberlain's Office, was discharged, the Crown bringing in evidence. J. K. Kerr has been appointed Solicitor by the County Council in opposition to M. C. Cameron, who was voted down.

The foundation of the new Theatre for Mrs. Morrison has been laid.

NOVEL STEEL OF REPORTING—A novelty in journalism will be found in the style in which the police reports are given in "Brett's St. Leonards and Hastings Gazette," London and of which the following is a fair average specimen:—"James Howard fined in 10s., with costs, 10s. 6d., for assaulting Charles Nore." Philanthropist Howard was never a word white or man of any country a ranger, inspecting the cells of the place-spotted hole regardless of personal danger. So, Howard of Hastings, can give us some tastings of danger how it is he feels, by quizzing the policeman, in courage behaviour, and charging a van and wheels. One wheel or its nave Howard closely did shave, but this only made Howard bolder: he raised his big stick, and laid it on van-driver's head, back, and shoulder. The driver was egg-headed, but painfully wriggled, and Wiggleford witnessed the thrashing; and then the whole tale, how at pace of a snail the horse and its driver were dashing. Such a daring encounter the fearless dismounter omitted neither report; and as he is not mean, silver shillings sixteen James Howard has paid into Court."

THERE are many reasons why the House is the best American and Canadian Sewing Machine. These reasons can be given at Ballington's Office, Dominion Buildings, Bridge Street, Belleville.

Their attention of parties in need of Sewing Machines is called to the House, it being the best in market for all kinds of work. It is made in the House Office, South Bridge Street, Belleville.

Let's Vire Four—Lieutenant Lynch in his voyage to the West Sea found a huge pile of gold on the shore, and the Arabs informed him that it was Let's wife. For our part we are much inclined to doubt it, though we have no hesitation in saying that the best thing to cure colds, sore throats, and all the northern, lower complaints, &c., is the "Canadian Pain Destroyer," to be had of all medicine dealers for 25 cents per bottle. Try it.

GREAT CONDITION MEDICINE—As a condition medicine for horses "Darby's Condition" is the best. It is a powerful and reliable remedy for all the diseases of the horse, and is sold by all the leading druggists and horse dealers. SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 27, 1872.

Annual School Report.

We have received copies of the Annual Report of the Normal, Model, Grammar and Common Schools of Ontario for the year 1870. It is a volume of some 180 pages, including Appendices. It is a work taken up with extended Tables showing the complete working of our School System, and the usual Reports of Local Superintendents. A cursory glance at the contents is sufficient to convince us that the cause of Education continues to advance, and that there is an improved tone in the general interest of the country. Not having space or time to review the work at length, we shall content ourselves by merely referring to a few of the salient statistical facts.

It appears that the total receipts for all Common School purposes for 1870 amounted to $1,344,364, which was an increase over the total receipts of the preceding year of $116,938.

This amount was expended as follows:—For Teachers' salaries, $1,223,681—an increase of $47,515. For School Apparatus, $33,891—an increase, $4,265. For fuel and building, $207,500—an increase, $16,129. For rent and repairs $61,860—an increase, $7,851. For School books, $116,817—an increase, $11,402. This leaves a balance of School monies not paid out of $233,303.

The number of children reported to be between the ages of 5 and 16 years is 483,856, which shows a gratifying increase of 13,666. Of this number 429,448 attend the schools, and the total number of "other ages" is 53,939, which gives a total of 442,516, an increase of 10,088. Of the above 333,381 are boys, and 309,133 are girls. There are 3,546 indigent pupils, and 21,265 not attending any school.

In the 4,566 schools reported there have been 5,160 Teachers employed, showing a total increase of 111. But here again we discover a tendency, to which we have on former occasions called attention. We refer to the gradual increase of female Teachers at the expense of the male. The facilities offered young women at the Normal School have induced many to qualify themselves for teaching, and it generally occurs that they prove eminently successful in this respect. A few years ago there were comparatively few women Teachers, but now we have 2,413 out of the above total, and an increase of 133, against a decrease of 22 men. This fact is quite significant of coming events. Nature intended that women should be Teachers, and has endowed them with peculiar qualifications for that purpose, and in this favoring them we are doubtless fulfilling a natural duty.

With regard to religious denominations, we find the Teachers classified as follows:—Presbyterians, 1859; Methodists, 1,500; Church of England, 860; Church of Rome, 698; Baptists, 387; Reported as Protestants, 117; Disciples, 16; Christians, 10; and Unaffiliated, 21. Of the 592 Teachers belonging to the Church of Rome, 349 are employed in the Public Common Schools, and 143 in the Separate Schools. The total number of certificated or licensed Teachers reported is 5,061. Of this number 319 hold 1st class, Normal School Provincial certificates; 849 hold 2nd class Provincial; 1,061 1st class County Board; of the old Standard; 2,102 2nd class County Board; 920 3rd class, and 194 not reported as classified.

The salaries paid to Teachers are very satisfactory, and the following returns show little improvement. The figures will speak for themselves. The highest salary paid to a male Teacher in a County, was $1,000—the lowest $100; in a City the highest $1,000—the lowest $250; in a Town, the highest $1,000—the lowest $200; in an Incorporated Village, the highest $1,000—the lowest $200. The average salary of male Teachers in Counties was $260—of females $187. Without going further we submit this summary to the consideration of Legislators and others concerned, and ask them how Teachers are expected to live on such a paltry sum!

The number of free schools is 4,244, an increase of 113. The number of partly free schools is 235, an increase of 71. This demonstrates the popularity of the free system, and it is quite probable that every school will be free in the course of a few years.

There were 178 School houses built during the year, and of those 71 were brick, 24 stone, 70 frame, and 13 log, in new Townships. The whole number of school houses reported is 4,590, of which 870 are brick, 428 stone, 1,888 frame, and 1,406 log. Of this, 4,180 are freehold, 512 leased, 102 rented, and 26 not reported.

There is much more similar statistical information, all more or less interesting to the public, but we cannot today find room for further remarks. What we have given will convey a very favorable impression of how the people of Ontario interest themselves in the great work of educating the rising generation, and fitting them for becoming intelligent and useful citizens of our young and prosperous Dominion.

Local and General.

DUNCAN IN RICHMOND.—The application for a repeal of the Pauper's By-law in the Township of Richmond, was thrown out by the Township Council at Selby on Monday last.

A LITTLE BIT OF STAY.—The Collingwood Bulletin reports a thorough-paced temperance journal, but if people will drink beer they don't know where they can get better liquor than at the Collingwood brewery. Well done old prohibition!

COASTING ACCIDENT.—Another serious accident is reported from the habit of coasting down hills with sleds. Nancy Glover, of Earnestown, was run down in this manner last Saturday afternoon, and had both of her legs broken by the blow from the sled.

LOAN EXHIBIT. The last number of the Edinburgh contains a well executed set of engravings of the Governor-General, accompanied by a biographical sketch of his Excellency. The latter is exceedingly complimentary in its allusions to the "Nation" across the border!

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY is coming and will soon be here. Already shopkeepers are beginning to get ready to accommodate their patrons in this line. We suppose that this being Leap Year the women's rights feeling will predominate, and the pretty documents with Cupid's message, &c.

THE MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT last night at the College was successful in every particular. The audience was good considering all things, and the music furnished by Messrs. Woulter and Van Norman was excellent. An enjoyable evening was spent, and all returned highly pleased with what they had experienced.

THE SCENE of the destructive fire on Thursday morning is most desolate, and considered by detractors from the beauty of Belleville in that vicinity. The locality is too popular to remain "in that state long, and it is probable immediate action will be taken towards clearing away the debris and making preparations for building again.

A WORD OF CAUTION.—There is a considerable opening in the ice on the river near the Lower Bridge, and last evening we observed a number of small boys near it. A misadventure might precipitate some of them into the water, and the current, being strong they would be carried under the ice. Parents should caution their children of this danger.

CURIOUS SCENE.—In several parts of the Town we saw workmen engaged in excavating for intended buildings, and the material being brought forward for that purpose. Next season will doubtless witness more than usual progress in building, and many desolate and unpleasant localities will be rendered ornamental. Belleville has a reputation in this respect, and will no doubt sustain it.

STRANGLER ACCIDENT.—The Cobourg World says it regret very much to state that as W. L. Stanton Esq., was passing over the sidewalk near the Victoria Hall on Saturday evening last, he slipped and fell, breaking one of the small bones of his leg. As soon as possible he was conveyed home where medical assistance was called. The accident is a serious one, and will prevent Mr. Stanton from leaving his room for several weeks.

A GOOD JOKE.—The Port Hope Guide has the following:—Mr. Langston, pound keeper, Hamilton Township, had a little ham, which went astray some months ago. Afterwards in the discharge of his duty he impounded an innocent sheep, which he subsequently advertised for sale—the costs amounting to about seven dollars. He was somewhat startled and chagrined on the day he discovered that the impounded animal was his own lamb. He is certainly an impartial pound-keeper.

THE STALL PORT.—In Massachusetts is a law imposing a penalty of a hundred dollars on those who through carelessness or wilful neglect fail to notify the Board of Health of the prevalence of contagious diseases in their households. Several cases have of late been brought before the courts by Magistrates, and fines indicated. In one of these cases it was shown that one Robert Smith had a son taken with a mild case of smallpox, which he recovered. He intimated that was not the father fearing the law would be sent to the hospital. But a Miss Goodwin, who had been in contact with Smith, and other persons took the same loathsome took from the same source. Enquiry was made, and the father is now in jail.

Not the Sea Stream.—It now appears that we were erroneously informed as to the cause of death of the four valuable horses belonging to Mr. Wood, of the front of Thurston, which was mentioned a few days ago. Competent authorities are decided that their death was caused by pulmonary suppuration, and not by eating green straw as stated. We mentioned at the time that it was a remarkable case, as farmers are usually in the habit of feeding hay to their horses. Mr. Wood's loss is much regretted by his neighbors and friends, as it was indeed a serious one.

For the Ontario.

Surprise Party.

On the evening of the 10th inst., a large number of the members of the Church, and friends from the vicinity of the Hotel, 35, E. Church in "Thurston," and "Zion's" Hill, rushed in and took possession of the residence of the Rev. J. M. Anderson, soon after which the ladies of the company entered the tables with a sumptuous repast which they had provided, to which they invited the Rev. gentleman and family with themselves to set down. After ample justice had been done to the good things provided, one of the number stepped forward, and in behalf of the company presented the Rev. Gentleman with a purse containing $30, and a present of $5 to his Lady, accompanied with an address expressive of their esteem for, and their appreciation of, his labors among them as a minister of the gospel, to which a suitable reply was made by the Rev. gentleman, after which prayer was offered, when the company dispersed, feeling sensible of the correctness of the principle taught by the Saviour. "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Joint Board of School Trustees.

Present.—Messrs. McAnanny, Glass, Sawyer, Tennant, Wensley, Macoun, Wills, Hamby, Shepard, Northrup, Pitschley and Falkner.

The Secretary read the School Election returns from the different Wards, and announced that J. Glass, Wm. Shepard, M. Sawyer and W. Wensley had been re-elected to the County Council. Mr. Hamby, Mr. Northrup, that the Town Council had appointed the Ven. Archdeacon Patton and Jan. Macoun to fill the vacancies at the Board.

Moved by Mr. Sawyer, seconded by Mr. Glass, that F. McAnanny be Chairman of this Board for the ensuing year.

Mr. McAnanny said he was grateful to the members of the Board for their selection of him to again occupy the position of Chairman. He had thought it would be better to appoint a Chairman possessed of clear and sound judgment, as it would enable him to judge better of the propriety of the scholars of the High School, and the advancement they were making; but in deference to the opinion of the Board he had consented to be put in nomination.

The Secretary put the resolution, and it was unanimously carried.

On taking the Chair Mr. McAnanny thanked the Board for the honor conferred, and pledged his best endeavors to discharge the duties of the position, relying upon the aid of them to sustain him, and he hoped that the unanimity and good feeling that had existed in the past would continue, and that their associations of this year would be found agreeable and pleasant.

Moved by Mr. Shepard, seconded by Mr. Falkner, that John A. Macinnis be appointed Secretary and Treasurer for the present year, at the salary of last year. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Wills, seconded by Mr. Glass, that Messrs. Glass, Hamby, Northrup, Tennant, and Wills, be appointed a Committee to strike the Standing Committees of this year.

Moved by Mr. Hamby, seconded by Mr. Wensley, that Messrs. Shepard, Pitschley, Northrup, Glass and Hamby, be appointed. The amendment was carried on division.

Yield.—Messrs. Shepard, Tennant, Wensley, Falkner, Pitschley and Hamby.

NAMES.—Messrs. Sawyer, Glass, Northrup, Macoun and Wills.

Moved by Mr. Shepard, seconded by Mr. Sawyer, that the Building Committee of last year be reappointed, consisting of Messrs. Wills, Sawyer, Wensley, Tennant and Hamby.

Carried.

Moved by Mr. Falkner, seconded by Mr. Northrup, that the Rev. J. O. Smith be appointed Inspector of schools for 1872, at the same salary as last year. Carried.

On motion for adjournment, the Chairman suggested that the minutes of previous meeting should be read.

The minutes were read, and all notices and the reading of the Inspectors' reports were allowed to stand until next meeting.

Board adjourned.

To Cause the Hair of the Main and Tail to Grow.

In reply to S. C. Drake, in the Trenton New York Advertiser, I beg to say the following recipe, which I have personally proven to be efficient in restoring a healthy growth of hair on the scalp and mane of horses:—Corrosive sublimate (hyd. bichloride), oxymuriate of mercury, each four grains in one ounce of distilled water. Wash the parts where the hair is thin with warm water and soap, then rub dry with a linen cloth, and immediately after apply in some of the above liniment. If the hair has been rubbed off by the sun's rays or other causes, or if the animal is afflicted with the capillary organ, then simply use cold water, applied with a soft sponge; avoid all combing or brushing, and clean the animal with taler, as the Arabs do, with a coarse flannel towel. —Mildy Morgan.

An Awful Mystery.

One cold night, about New Year's, a cry of fire was raised in Mount Bethel, a little town about seven miles from Plainfield over the Springfield Mountain. Some one called, N. J. A building over a hundred years old was in flames. It was occupied by a German farmer named Beaudet. He resided from the kitchen building, supposing that his family was safe. He missed one of his daughters and ran back into the house to save her. He had caught her in his arms and was making his way to the door, when the floor gave way and both were burned to death. Since then the ruins of the house have been removed. The mansion was built in the old fashioned style, with fireplaces in two of the rooms, the chimneys sloping towards each other, and joining before reaching the roof. Wallied in the cavity between the two fireplaces a human skeleton in perfect preservation was discovered. An old flintlock knife lay at his feet. The market was the old Indian, perhaps. It is supposed that the remains are those of a Tory soldier who met his death at the hands of the revolutionaries during the revolution. The oldest inhabitants are unable to explain this horrible mystery.

The remains of the father and daughter were found in the ruins.

From the Aurora (Ill.) Spectator, Jan. 18.

Mr. Orrin Z. Whitford, formerly of this city, who had lately taken up a soldier's claim at Oakland, Jewett County, Kansas, started on the 5th of November with four others, to hunt buffalo, intending to be gone about ten days. The party found the buffalo out farther than they expected. On the 16th a heavy rain commenced falling, lasting about 24 hours, then turning to snow with a very strong wind, cleared up on the 17th, but the snow remained. On the 18th the wife of Whitford and other friends were informed that five men had been frozen to death. The father-in-law of Whitford and four others started in search. They were gone eight days and brought in the bodies of four of the lost men; the fifth was still alive, but with both limbs fearfully frozen; he had not had a morsel to eat for five days. It would seem that the party had been in a very bad way, which they had in a ravine. They afterwards found the wagon covered with ten feet of snow, and started back towards home with their horses. On the 21st, after travelling five miles, gave out; the third four miles further, and he was gone out, young Whitford pushed on three miles yet, further, and then perished. Whitford, who was an Old Fellow, and was a part of that Order, was just killed by a party of strangers, was of the belonged to the Order, who buried his remains and left his pocket-book and pin with the nearest Sheriff. His body, with the others, was afterwards taken to Oakland. Whitford was formerly a member of Company A, Thirty-sixth Illinois Cavalry. He was a fine soldier, and much thought of by his officers and comrades; a kind and loving husband and father, and brother.

Five new Bishops in the imminent thought of by the Methodists. Some think of ten, and others of a larger number, to be elected by the General Conference in May next.

LEGISLATURE OF ONTARIO.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Monday, Jan. 22, 1872.

(By Telegraph)

Toronto, Jan. 22.

The SPEAKER took the Chair at three o'clock.

Mr. RYKERT introduced a bill to incorporate the Federal Trust Company of Ontario, for $470,000.

Mr. PRINCE introduced a bill to incorporate the Dominion Oil Works Association.

Mr. ROBINSON introduced a bill to authorize the City of Kingston to negotiate a loan for $470,000.

Mr. Rykert's bill to amend the Agricultural and Arable Act, so as to provide that each member of the twelve Agricultural Districts of Ontario shall hold his seat for four years, four members to retire each year, and the whole number, was read a second time and referred to a select committee.

Mr. PRINCE'S bill to consolidate and amend the laws for the protection of game and for bearing animals in Ontario was read a second time and referred to a select committee.

Mr. SCOTT, of Grey, inquired of the Ministry if it was their intention to bring before the House during the present session any measure or scheme having for its object the development of an increasing immigration with this Province.

Hon. Mr. BLAKE hoped to be able to submit a measure this session, but could not yet name the day.

Mr. CROFT inquired of the Ministry whether or not it was their intention to bring during the present session a bill to regulate underdraining in this Province.

Hon. Mr. BLAKE replied in the negative.

The House, at 4:30 adjourned till Monday.

A FRIGHTFUL DEATH.—A little girl, six years of age, met with a horrible death, at Hugganess, New York. The mother of the child hearing screams, rushed to the sitting-room and discovered the little girl enveloped in flames, and an English bull dog tearing her burning garments off her with his paws and teeth. He had already taken over half of her clothing off, and it is believed that he had taken her life. The mother, who was in the room, cried at the sight, and rushed forward and clasped her child to her bosom, and held her close, thus baffling the efforts which the faithful dog made, although singed and burned terribly himself, to tear off the clothing. The girl was burned to death and the mother fearfully wounded. The dog that exhibited more than human sagacity in his efforts to save the child, has been her constant companion, having been raised with her. Since the burial of the child occurred, he wanders from room to room as if searching for her, uttering a plaintive whine, expressive of his grief. He takes no food, and it is believed that he will pine to death.

THE MARCH OF TEMPERANCE.—Mr. Dalrymple, an English member of Parliament, who lately came over to the United States, to investigate the Temperance question, seems to have gone home a sadder if not a wiser man. He was positively horrified by the frequency of tipping among our countrymen in Glasgow and cities in Philadelphia and New York, but he does not appear to have been less shocked at what he saw in the Hub of the Universe and other East-end cities, where, though liquor was ostensibly denied him, he seems never to have had the slightest difficulty in getting it, or performing some such impressive operation as putting his thumb to his nose and agitating his fingers. He has accordingly returned to England with a conviction that all prohibitory measures are useless; and that we are either the greatest drinkers or most uncomplaining hypocrites on the face of the globe. "In a letter to his constituents," he says, "What I saw and heard confirmed me in the belief that neither the Prohibitive bill of my country and other teetotal friends, nor the Licensing bill of Mr. Bruce will be at all satisfactory, or will meet the difficulties; and I shall feel bound to vote against any extreme measure by whomsoever brought forward."

I am convinced that the country will not tolerate a disqualification, such as proposed by the Government bill of last session, and that, though legislation of some kind is indispensable, yet the evil is much more radical than by any act of Parliament."

If you had to have a bull, where would you prefer it? In the kettle.

THE MURDER MARKET in New York.—One of the New York exchanges thus quoted in the New York Herald:—"To-day our murder market is quiet. Convictions weak with a downward tendency. Chances for new trials brisk and improving. Certainties of executions scarcely quoted at all. There are eight convicted murderers in the Tombs, and four awaiting the action of the Courts. Only one is counted on as a sure contribution to the gallows, and he is a poor Irishman who killed his wife in a drunken quarrel."

Olway, M. P. for Chatham, addressed his constituents last night upon the political affairs. He expressed the opinion that the state of Europe was pregnant with complications which might lead to war. He also discussed at great length the Albanian question, and in the course of his remarks said that if the claim of the United States was granted, war between England and that country would become a necessity. He added that the blunder of the British Government might become the cause of a future discussion at home, and deprecated the honors which have been conferred on the negotiators of the Treaty of Washington.

An extraordinary scene occurred in the Spanish Senate yesterday, at the dissolution of the Chamber.

The Scott Murder.

The new Premier of Ontario, Mr. Blake, has made a noble beginning in the fulfilment of his promises to the people of that Province. The motion which he brought before the Assembly last night, expressing regret that no effectual steps have been taken to bring the murderers of Thomas Scott to justice, received the full support of the House, the only dissentient voices raised being those of Mr. G. Cameron. The grounds laid down by Mr. Blake for the action of the Assembly in this matter are irrefragable, the honor of Ontario and the rights of its citizens being involved. The Hon. Mr. Scott, M.P. for Ottawa, a Roman Catholic, gave the motion his hearty support; so that it is clear religious or party feeling does not enter into the question so far as Ontario is concerned. Mr. Blake intimated that his motion was merely preliminary to further steps which would be taken by Government to have the matter effectually dealt with. There seems now to be room for hope that justice will overtake the shadows of innocent blood and those who abetted them, or at all events the loyal people of Manitoba will be spared the humiliation and bitterness of seeing the murderers of one of their number permitted to stalk about openly in their midst, and even getting themselves appointed to public positions.—Montreal Witness.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the great and freshness of youth.

Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness, either on the head or elsewhere, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of feeding the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous.

It occasionally will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. It is wanted more for a

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular monthly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held tomorrow evening at their rooms. The usual business will be transacted.

Town Council
—There will be a special meeting of the Town Council this evening
for the transaction of business, at the usual hour.

Albert University
—The Annual
Exhibition by the Undergraduates of Albert
University will be held in Ontario Hall,
Friday evening, Feb. 10th. Discourse, Essays, Declamation, &c., will, as usual,
make up the entertainment.

Curling
—We observe that the Cobourg
Curling Club intend shortly to play a game with the Belleville team. It is expected that the Belleville team will be expected to give the Cobourg team a good game.

Death of an Old Servant
—Rev. Thomas
Macdonald, one of the oldest and most respected Ministers of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, died at his residence, Stirling, on Sunday last, and was buried on Tuesday, Rev. Mr. Bland preaching the funeral sermon. He entered the Ministry in 1819, and must have been well over eighty years of age at the time of his death.
His end was peace.

The Slaking
—The slaking is excellent now,
and tanning is likely considerable quantity
of wood is coming in, mostly green too.
Prices, however, continue to rule pretty high, but not extravagant in comparison with some other places. We must make up our minds to meet this wood question as expediently as possible, and be prepared to shell out an additional dollar or so as the scarcity increases.

Popularity of the Globe
—We notice
a paragraph giving the results of the opposition press to this effect: Upon the care and the public streets the demand now is almost entirely for The Globe and The Leader, while the Globe and The Leader are the man who pointed that quib knew he was telling an untruth, and the papers that give it countenance are equally countenance.
There are three times as many Globes sold anywhere as Telegraphs and Leaders combined,
and for very good reasons too.

The Telegraph
—The Telegraph has been considerably reduced in size, and printed with smaller type. It is now the same dimensions as the DAILY ONTARIO, though containing considerable more matter. The publisher gives his reasons for this change which are philosophical enough, and if satisfying all purposes will certainly be advantageous. The Telegraph is a good paper though expensive in some of its political views, and inclined to show no quarter to an opponent.

A Wonder
—Yesterday's Telegraph contained
not a word about that "Proton Outrage," those respectable affidavits, and such. Why was this? Was it because the leading spirit, Mr. Lander, found it convenient to skirt the question after giving vent to so much indignation, and forbore
the motion he had given notice of? No doubt the Telegraph feels itself badly sold, or else completely exposed and wants to let the matter drop too. But the end is not yet.

Grand Benefit Concert
—Prof. Armstrong's
second Benefit Concert will be given in Masonic Music Hall on the evening of
Feb. 7th, and will consist of Music,
Songs—comic and sentimental, Readings,
Recitations, Selection by the Band of the 15th Batt., &c. No efforts will be spared to make this a recherché affair, and the entertainment of the kind given this season.
The popularity of the Prof. will ensure a full house. Further information can be learned from printed bills.

Kinston and Sir John A.
—The Ottawa
Ointment finds much consolation from the fact that the people of Carleton place have never swerved in their attachment to Sir John A.
Macdonald since the day they first sent the "curly-headed boy" to Parliament, now nearly thirty years ago. It further states that he is just as dear to them now as ever,
and proves this by mentioning their intention to entertain him to a public banquet during his present visit among them. This may all be the case, but somehow recent transactions in the old city would seem to indicate a little difference in the dictates of the Dominion's premier. We admit that Sir John is deserving of much consideration at their hands, in a certain sense, and don't believe he commands such a large share of their confidence to-day as formerly.

Grace Marks
—The County Council
of Frontenac have in their official capacity,
signed the memorial to the Governor Gen.,
praying for the release of Grace Marks.
This subject is becoming extensively agitated,
and considerable of interest is taken in
it. We agree with the prayer of the memorial.
No matter how much unpunished
she was in the awful crime which, nearly half century ago, sent her to the Penitentiary,
her long incarceration has been sufficient to expiate the guilt, and now let her once more breathe the free air of heaven
where she dies.

Disfranchisement
—The report of the premier Transvaal, who was auditing Mr. Campbell last summer at an election, was concluded yesterday,
the jury bringing in a verdict of common assent.

Disfranchisement
—The Ottawa Telegraph tells a pitiable tale of want and suffering in that city. A girl about ten years of age dropped senseless on the street through hunger and weakness. The police officer, who found her, and after furnishing her with food,
had her conveyed home, where a wretched scene of destitution met his gaze. The father was perfectly helpless through illness, which was greatly aggravated by want, and the mother was compelled to struggle for a bare pittance of support, hid from the public gaze, where honest lives wear out a wretched existence
evicted by those who have to spare.

Police Court
Before A. Diamond, P. M.
Wednesday, Jan. 31.
The Laid over until Friday next.
The further adjourned till Friday next.

St. Thomas Church Concert
The Concert in St. Thomas' Church was a great success. All the different congregations in town were represented, and had such a musical treat in this section of the Province. The report attested the judicious selections, admirable training and beautiful rendering by the Choir under the management of Mr. Wiah, whose skill as a director, received the well merited praise of all lovers of good music, and the most unqualified approbation of some of the largest, if not the largest audience, assembled to listen to sacred music in this town. To do justice to Mr. Wiah exceeds the abilities of a reporter unless he were a musical con-noisseur, and the technical phraseology of art would probably exceed the literary demands of our Provincial newspapers. His merits are of too high an order, and his executions too brilliant for our untrained taste. The selections were strictly classical, and would have done credit to the best musical talent on this continent, and the marked appreciation with which they were received, evinces that the taste of our citizens is capable of intense gratification from the highest works of art. Beneath his touch the fine Organ poured out floods of melody, surging in billows of sound or dashing
in spray on the crest of musical waves;
soaring in ecstatic throbs or rippling in sil-
very cadence, as vivid as the lightning flash; or swelling as the mutterings of reverberating thunder, now as soft as the air from the caves of Bevis, or as will as the fierce murmurs of the sea. One could scarcely believe that one pair of human ears and the world of harmonious melodies suddenly opened to them. It seemed like a new revelation, so astonishing was the skill that hushed the grand volumes of multitudinous instruments represented, into the most wonderful delicate tones of softness, in all directions broadly and grandly distributing the ascending volumes of power, till they culminated in the overpowering crash of the thunderbolt, carrying all with their force
up to the highest waves of sound, then floating down in the rhythmic melody till undoubtedly with the spell, that was only broken
as the instrument ceased.

Miss Cantrill
—Miss Cantrill, with much sweetness
"The Morning Prayer." She has a beautiful voice, and when she has additional experience, will gain that confidence so essential to success.

Mr. Harrison
—Mr. Harrison was quite up to his reputation and in the rendering of that strictly classical solo, "With Verdunde Glad," as the outburst of the lustre of his former achievements, and no singer, unless a personal
one in the highest walks of the lyre drama, could have excelled her. Equally well rendered was the "O Salutaris."

Mr. Milburn
—Mr. Milburn sang "Arm, arm, ye Brave" with very good effect.

Mr. Whitham

Toronto, Jan. 29.

After some routine business
After some routine business, Mr. Ardagh enquired of the Ministry whether it was their intention to bring before the House,
during the present session any measure relating to the promotion of the settlement of wild lands, &c.

Hon. Mr. SCOTT
Hon. Mr. SCOTT said it was not the intention of the Government to ask any special legislation on the subject.

Hon. Mr. ARDAGH
Hon. Mr. ARDAGH enquired if it was their intention to bring down any measure in amendment to the Free Grants Act, &c.

Hon. Mr. SCOTT
Hon. Mr. SCOTT said it was not the intention of the Government to amend the Free Grants Act.

Hon. Mr. ARDAGH
Hon. Mr. ARDAGH also enquired concerning the funding or holding the Crown dues,
a portion of them payable under the Timber Licence.

Hon. Mr. SCOTT
Hon. Mr. SCOTT said it was not the policy of the Government to create any special fund
for special purposes.

Hon. Mr. DEACON
Hon. Mr. DEACON enquired concerning the extension of the policy of Free Grants.

Hon. Mr. SCOTT
Hon. Mr. SCOTT said it was the intention of the Government to repeal the Order in Council made by the late Administration, under which squatters who settled prior to the passage of the Free Grant Act, &c., would have to pay 50 cents an acre. The present Government felt that these settlers ought to be placed under equally favorable conditions, and accordingly the Government had passed the Act. Therefore it is a matter settled before the passage of the Act was in actual operation he would be entitled to a patent fee. This remark applied to the fifty-five townships forming the Free Grant territory of the Province.
So far as regards those who had settled on the land antecedent to that passage of the Free Grant Act, and who had paid one or more instalments, it was the intention of the Government to give them the balance due to the Crown free upon their complying
with the conditions of the Free Grant Act,
and the Order in Council issued to carry it into force. This remark applied to the Crown free upon their complying
with the conditions of the Free Grant Act,
and the Order in Council issued to carry
it into force.

Hon. Mr. SCOTT
Hon. Mr. SCOTT explained that the union of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada to Confederation this revenue from the two provinces had passed into one fund. It would therefore, cause great labor to separate the amounts. The sum was not a large one—under $50,000.

MR. LAURENCE
MR. LAURENCE moved for a committee
of enquiry into the election frauds of South

of enquiry into the election frauds of South
Grey being called, the mover was absent,
and therefore it dropped.

Mr. Wood

Bridgman, Doolittle, Fitzsimmons, Farley, Prince, Clark, (Wellington) Perry and Farwell, do compose the Committee to enquire into the reasons adopted by the House
A debate followed, and the motion was carried.

Hon. Mr. BLAKE
Hon. Mr. BLAKE, at considerable length, proposed a measure which involved
the general principle of Parliamentary management of the Railway Fund, for which he and his friends had contended for years.
We shall give Mr. Blake's address to-morrow, as subject. The motion was carried and referred to committee.

Hon. Mr. BLAKE
Hon. Mr. BLAKE moved the second reading of the Bill to further secure the independence of the Legislative Assembly, upon which a lengthy debate followed, lasting until the close of the session at 11 o'clock.
The motion was carried without dissent.

The Grand Duke's Hunting
A friend furnishes us with a late copy of the Illustrated Londoner containing a graphic description of how Alex. enjoyed himself hunting buffaloes. We extract the following which may prove interesting:—
The splendid success of the previous evening was quite surpassed by the brilliant coloring of the clouds that hung over the horizon at dawn of the succeeding morning.
The sun, however, soon dispelled the gloom-
ing vapors, and the sky presented nothing but the sun itself in an unbroken field of blue. The weather here is wonderful for this season of the year; the day has been warm and beautiful. Overcasts have been quite unknown since the 1st of January. We found them cumbersome.

THE FIRST HUNT OF BUFFALO
Very early in the morning Buffalo Bill went out to see what the prospects were.
Before ten o'clock, with a party of six, he had about fifteen miles distant there was a herd of buffalo browsing on the grass that grew the divide between the Red Willow and the Medicine. This was the place to the Grand Duke and all the other sportsmen. Orders were given at once to make the necessary preparations to follow
and find them.

TO HUNT TO HUNT
Accordingly, soon after breakfast, the hunters in their party, armed to the teeth, were armed in their saddles. General Sheridan, being slightly indisposed, did not come out with him in the morning, but we found in Custer, who was assigned the day of the initiation of his Imperial Highness into the mysteries of buffalo hunting,
the most dashing cavalry officer in the service, next to General Sheridan.

THE DUKE'S HUNTING ATTIRE
The Grand Duke's hunting dress was very appropriate and simple. It consisted of jacket and trousers of heavy gray cloth trimmed with green, the buttons bearing the Imperial Russian coat of arms. He wore his boots outside his trousers; his cap was an Australian turban, with cloth top. He carried a Russian hunting knife and the Smith & Wesson revolver. He was presented to him and bearing the coat of arms of the United States and of Russia on the handle.

GENERAL CUSTER'S APPEARANCE
General Custer appeared in his well-known frontier buckskin hunting costume,
and if indeed of the comical skin he wore
he had only feathers fastened in his dressing hair, he would have passed in the distance for a great Indian chief. Buffalo Bill's dress was something similar to Custer's.

When the three started off from camp
When the three started off from camp
together, the Duke, Custer and Bill—all were armed to the teeth. They were —they attracted the attention and admiration of everyone. Most of the members of the imperial party went along and all the staff officers of the camp.

PRACTICE BY THE WAY
The face of the country was very much broken up, and the snow in some spots was eighteen inches deep. The Grand Duke availed himself of Custer's experience, and asked many questions, and noticed the hunting and snoring of imaginary buffaloes as he went. Bill led us up and down and around ravines and over rolling lands—and sometimes with sight of howling wolves—a distance of nearly fifteen miles, when, just as we galloped up the rugged slope to the divide, we came close upon part of the herd
that we had seen.

THE FIRST CHARGE—ALEXIS BRINGS DOWN A
BULL.
The Duke and Custer charged together,
but what seemed singular, to the hunters
the buffalo did not run; they stood at bay,
and if indeed of the comical skin he wore
he had only feathers fastened in his
dressing hair, he would have passed in the distance for a great Indian chief. Buffalo

Chicago, Jan. 30.
Ex-Alderman Montgomery was today found guilty on an indictment for bribery. The case of Alderman Bessie has been taken up and considerable testimony elicited.

Paris, Jan. 30.
President Thiers, in discussing with Alphonse Rothchild, the project for the further evacuation of France by the Germans said, "I would, to see an end of the occupation, if we had a stable government and settled public opinion. As it is, if the Germans were gone we would have wars. The domestic and Bonapartists would come forth and in a few days all the countries of the world would be at war. I will yield, though, with regret to the general desire, though I consider that the presence of the Prussians is a guarantee of peace and order."

The impression prevails here that the Geneva Convention will necessarily disappoint the hopes of its friends, and that the end will prove a failure. If the Conference should decide in favor of the claims, no English Government would accept the result, and no parliament would vote the money. Hence the movement would stop. The proceedings now in progress. The argument of the Times is that England should demand and claim indirect damages, and if the Court reject the demand, she should withdraw from the case. This is not an argument addressed to the Government but is a Government view put out as a feeler. The Government say: "We cannot acquiesce in a construction which we are determined not to acknowledge, if proved against us."

THE VERY LATEST.

London, Jan. 31.
A meeting in aid of the Livingston Expedition, held at the Mansion House last night, at the call of Lord Mayor was well attended, and quite successful. Subscriptions were received to the amount of $2,000. Measures were taken to complete the organization and equipment of the relief expedition, and send it off at an early day.

Arrived on the steamer City of Antwerp from New York, and Hecla from Boston.

Madrid, Jan. 31.
Reinforcements to the number of 8,000 men have sailed from Cadex for Cuba.

Bordeaux, Jan. 31.
The boiler of the British steamship Amazon which arrived here from Liverpool, exploded yesterday with fatal effect. Two men were killed and several injured.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 31.
Information received here states that 3 persons were killed and 7 wounded, by a collision between a freight and passenger train at Yorkville, Ala., on Thursday last.

At the time of accident the trains were moving at such a speed that the tender of the freight train was torn from its trucks and forced entirely through the express car, and into the coach of the passenger train.

SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

Kincaid, Jan. 31.

The premises on Queen St. occupied by the Rev. P. P. O'Brien, Dr. Johnson's office, and Crozier & Leslie's Hardware store were totally destroyed by fire this morning. Crozier and Leslie had insurance $20,000. Dr. Johnson's loss $400. No insurance. C. Cliffe, editor of the Review has an insurance of $400.

A recently arrived English servant girl picked a cup of scalding coffee from the mistress's face, at San Francisco, because the lady hoped the Prince of Wales would die. She was now looking for another place. British families preferred. References unexceptionable.

The agricultural who, at the Oakland agricultural fair, put in a jar of castor oil for the honey premium, did not get even an honorable mention. The judges reported against keeping bees near castor bean plantations.

Senator Sherman is cultivating the German interest. The tariff bill puts bologna sausage and snout on the free list. And, by the way, the telegraph had it that "shepherd's wax raw, dried or preserved in sugar" would be admitted free.

The following sentence—"John quickly extended five feet bags"—contains all the letters of the alphabet, and only four of them are used more than once. The following sentence contains all the letters of the alphabet, and repeats none of them: "Abcdefghijklmno pqrstuvwxy z."

Samuel Rowell, who fell down stairs and was killed at Lancaster, N. H., on the 18th, was 95 years old, and a grandson of the brave Hannah Dustin, of Indian massacre fame. He saw Washington when the General visited Portsmouth in 1789, and voted at every Presidential election since he came of age.

Two men at Boscobel, Iowa, got lubricated last week and fought and killed. One excavated a mound on his companion's side, put with a bottle of whisky. The extent of their loss flashed upon them and they sat down and wept together, and then went to sleep in each other's arms, in a mud-puddle.

Mrs. Potter Palmer is instanced as a heart-breaking case of Chicago beggary. At a New Year's reception she wore a $2,000 ring, and $25,000 worth of rings on her fingers. Mr. Palmer, the day after the fire, announced himself a beggar, and the Chicago press is slightly satirical over the pitiable condition of the worthy people.

Druck in His Throat.—An assistant in a drug store on Yonge Street, Toronto, went on a big drunk a few nights ago and got into a little squabble with a lot of colored men. One of them undertook to swallow a tall candle if the asphyxiate of the people would stand still. This was agreed to, and when the drayard had the candle three-parts swallowed the white man slapped him on the mouth and nearly choked him. He fled and is afraid to look a black man in the face ever since.
